

TEXT FEATURES

Text features refer to the organizational and structural elements of a text that generally help with navigating and meaning-making.

OVERVIEW

A text feature is an element of a text that helps readers to make meaning of the text. They could be used to display information in easy-to-digest ways, help compel the storyline forward, help readers navigate a non-linear text, and structure data in an organized fashion. Without text features, we would simply have big blocks of text that would be tedious to read and comprehend.

EXAMPLES

- Graphs/Charts: Visual representations of data. They help to illustrate and explain datasets and relationships between data in a fast and consumable way.
- Table of Contents: A list of titles or chapters and the page numbers where they start, usually located at the beginning of a book. They allow readers to navigate the book easily.

Aguzzi, 2017-07-28 Since the calls of the Second Vatican Council, Roman Catholic theologians have sought to overcome an overarching problem facing Jewish-Christian relations: the concept of supersessionism, the idea that God has revoked the spiritual and historical promises made to the Jewish people in favour of granting those same privileges to a predominantly Gentile Church. Israel, the Church, and Millenarianism breaks new ground by applying an ancient principle to the problem of Israel's replacement: the early Church's promotion of millennialism. Utilizing the best in Patristic research, Aguzzi argues that these earliest Christian traditions made room for the future of Israel because Christ's reign in the Church was viewed as provisional to his historical reign on earth. Israel's role in salvation history was and is not yet complete. Aguzzi's research also opens the door for a greater Catholic understanding of the millennial principle, not shying away from its validity and relevance for understanding the importance of safeguarding Jewish particularity while concluding that the Synagogue and the Church are indeed on a parallel trajectory: what will their Israel's acceptance be but life from the dead? Romans 11:15. Ultimately, the divine will is fulfilled through both Christian and Jewish means in history, while each community is dependent in different ways upon the unfolding of God's future and the coming Parousia of Christ.
