The Hellenism Of Mary Renault:

The Hellenism of Mary Renault Bernard F. Dick, 1972 Best known for her historical novels The Last of the Wine 1956 The King Must Die 1958 The Bull from the Sea 1962 The Mask of Apollo 1966 and Fire from Heaven 1969 Mary Renault's works have often appeared to readers as collateral reading to Greek literature She is doubtless one of the most creative historical novelists of our era and the only bona fide Hellenist in twentieth century fiction What is less well known is that Mary Renault's earlier works written between 1939 and 1953 among them Promise of Love 1939 Return to Night 1947 and The Charioteer 1953 were contemporary pieces not concerned with antiquity Covering the entire range of Miss Renault's work Bernard Dick's penetrating study analyzes the early works and shows they were filled with classical allusions and dominated by Greek ideals of friendship

The Masks of Mary Renault Caroline Zilboorg, 2013-10-10 Born Eileen Mary Challans in London in 1905 Mary Renault wrote six successful contemporary novels before turning to the historical fiction about ancient Greece for which she is best known While Renault's novels are still highly regarded her life and work have never been completely examined Caroline Zilboorg seeks to remedy this in The Masks of Mary Renault by exploring Renault's identity as a gifted writer and a sexual woman in a society in which neither of these identities was clear or easy Although Renault's life was anything but ordinary this fact has often been obscured by her writing The daughter of a doctor she grew up comfortably and attended a boarding school in Bristol She received a degree in English from St Hugh's College in Oxford in 1928 but she chose not to pursue an academic career Instead she decided to attend the Radcliffe Infirmary in Oxford where she trained to be a nurse With the outbreak of the Second World War she was assigned to the Winford Emergency Hospital in Bristol and briefly worked with Dunkirk evacuees She went on to work in the Radcliffe Infirmary's brain surgery ward and was there until 1945 It was during her nurse's training that Renault met Julie Mullard who became her lifelong companion This important lesbian relationship both resolved and posed many problems for Renault not the least of which was how she was to write about issues at once intensely personal and socially challenging In 1939 Renault published her first novel under a pseudonym in order to mask her identity It was a time when she was struggling not only with her vocation nursing and writing but also with her sexual identity in the social and moral context of English life during the war In 1948 Renault left England with Mullard for South Africa and never returned It was in South Africa that she made the shift from her early contemporary novels of manners to the mature historical novels of Hellenic life The classical settings allowed Renault to mask material too explosive to deal with directly while simultaneously giving her an academic freedom to write about subjects vital to her among them war peace career women's roles female and male homosexuality and bisexuality Renault's reception complicates an understanding of her achievement for she has a special status within the academic community where she is both widely read and little written about Her interest in sexuality and specifically in homosexuality and bisexuality in fluid gender roles and identities warrants a rereading and reevaluation of her work Eloquentlly written and extensively researched The Masks of Mary Renault will be of special value to anyone interested in women s studies or English literature Mary Renault David Sweetman,1993 In her novels The Last of the Wine The Bull from the Sea and The Persian Boy Mary Renault wrote so frankly about homosexuality that some readers thought she must be a man In fact Renault was the pseudonym for Mary Challans a remarkable and private woman Born in London she spent most of her life in South Africa Hellenism and Loss in the Work of Virginia Woolf Dr Theodore Koulouris,2013-04-28 Taking up Virginia Woolf s fascination with Greek literature and culture this book explores her engagement with the nineteenth century phenomenon of British Hellenism and her transformation of that multifaceted socio cultural and political reality into a particular textual aesthetic which Theodore Koulouris defines as Greekness Woolf was a lifelong student of Greek but from 1907 to1909 she kept notes on her Greek readings in the Greek Notebook an obscure and largely unexamined manuscript that contains her analyses of a number of canonical Greek texts including Plato s Symposium Homer s Odyssey and Euripides Ion Koulouris s examination of this manuscript uncovers crucial insights into the early development of Woolf s narrative styles and helps establish the link between Greekness and loss Woolf s Greekness Koulouris argues enabled her to navigate male and female appropriations of British Hellenism and provided her with a means of articulating loss whether it be loss of a great Hellenic past women s vocalitly immediate family members or human civilization during the formative decades of the twentieth century In drawing attention to the centrality of Woolf s early Greek studies for the elegiac quality of her writing Koulouris maps a new theoretical terrain that involves reassessing long established views on Woolf and the Greeks The Literature of Lesbianism Terry Castle,2003 Since the Renaissance countless writers have been magnetized by the notion of love between women This anthology registers that fact in as encompassing and enlightening a way as possible Castle explores the emergence and transformation of the idea of lesbianism
