Karlsen Seim Dennis E Smith Yancy W Smith Stephen V Sprinkle Hal Taussig Oliver Larry Yarbrough The Embodied God Brittany E. Wilson, 2021 In The Embodied God Wilson focuses on depictions of God's body in the New Testament She argues that Luke Acts emerges as an important example of a New Testament text that portrays God as visible and corporeal and that this portrayal has significant implications for how we are to understand early Christology Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 1, Origins to Constantine Margaret M. Mitchell, Frances M. Young, K. Scott Bowie, Face to Face Robin Margaret Jensen, Examining how God and eventually Christ are portrayed in early Christian art Jensen explores questions of the relationship between art and theology conflicts over idolatry and iconography and how the Christological controversies affected the portrayals of Christ Since much of this art comes from ancient Rome she places her analysis in the context of the history of Roman portraiture One hundred photographs enhance the discussion Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art Lee M. Jefferson, 2014-01-01 Artistic representations were of significant value to early Christian communities In Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art Lee Jefferson argues that images provided visual representations of vital religious and theological truths crucial to the faithful and projected concepts beyond the limitations of the written and spoken word Images of Christ performing miracles or healings functioned as advertisements for Christianity and illustrated the nature of Christ Using these images of Christ Jefferson examines the power of art its role in fostering devotion and the deep connection between art and its elucidation of pivotal theological claims God and Gold in Late Antiquity Dominic Janes, 1998-02-19 From the conversion of the emperor Constantine in the early fourth century vast sums of money were spent on the building and sumptuous decoration of churches The resulting works of art contain many of the greatest monuments of late antique and early medieval society But how did such expenditure fit with Christ's message of poverty and simplicity In attempting to answer that question this 1998 study employs theories on the use of metaphor to show how physical beauty could stand for spiritual excellence As well as explaining the evolving attitudes to sanctity decorum and display in Roman and medieval society detailed analysis is made of case studies of Latin biblical exegesis and gold ground mosaics so as to counterpoint the contemporary use of gold as a Christian image in art and text Imperial Rome and Christian Triumph Jas Elsner, 1998 Western culture saw some of the most significant and innovative developments take place during the passage from antiquity to the middle ages This stimulating new book investigates the role of the visual arts as both reflections and agents of those changes It tackles two inter related periods of internal transformation within the Roman Empire the phenomenon known as the Second Sophistic c ad 100-300 two centuries of self conscious and enthusiastic hellenism and the era of late antiquity c ad 250-450 when the empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity Vases murals statues and masonry are explored in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change Jas Elsner presents a fresh and challenging

account of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins a highly individual work wonderful visual and comparative analysis I can think of no other general book on Roman art that deals so elegantly and informatively with the theme of visibility and visual desire Professor Natalie Boymel Kampen Barnard College New York exciting and original a vibrant impression of creative energy and innovation held in constant tension by the persistence of more traditional motifs and techniques Elsner constantly surprises and intrigues the reader by approaching familiar material in new ways Professor Averil Cameron Keble College Oxford

Rhetorical Invention and Religious Inquiry Walter Jost, Wendy Olmsted, 2000-01-01 This exceptional collection of writings offers for the first time a discussion among leading thinkers about the points at which rhetoric and religion illuminate and challenge each other The contributors to the volume are eminent theorists and critics in rhetoric theology and religion and they address a variety of problems and periods Together these writings shed light on religion as a human quest and rhetoric as the origin and sustainer of that quest They show that when pursued with intelligence and sensitivity rhetorical approaches to religion are capable of revitalizing both language and experience Rhetorical figures for example constitute forms of language that say what cannot be said in any other way and that move individuals toward religious truths that cannot be known in any other way When firmly placed within religious social and literary history the convergence of rhetoric and religion brings into focus crucial issues in several fields including philosophy psychology history and art and interprets relations among self language and world that are central to both past and present cultures

The Gospel according to Heretics David E. God Visible Brian E. Daley, 2018-01-19 God Visible Patristic Christology Reconsidered considers the early development and reception of what is today the most widely professed Christian conception of Christ The development of this doctrine admits of wide variations in expression understanding and interpretation that are as striking in authors of the first millennium as they are among modern writers The seven early ecumenical councils and their dogmatic formulations were crucial facilitators in defining the shape of this study Focusing primarily on the declaration of the Council of Chalcedon in AD 451 Brian E Daley argues that previous assessments that Christ was one Person in two natures the Divine of the same substance as the Father and the human of the same substance as us can sometimes be excessively narrow even distorting our understanding of Christ's person Daley urges us to look beyond the Chalcedonian formula alone and to consider what some major Church Fathers from Irenaeus to John Damascene say about the person of Christ
