Cosmos, Gods and Madmen Roland Littlewood,Rebecca Lynch,2016-06-01 The social anthropology of sickness and health has always been concerned with religious cosmologies how societies make sense of such issues as prediction and control of misfortune and fate the malevolence of others the benevolence or otherwise of the mystical world local understanding and explanations of the natural and ultra human worlds This volume presents differing categorizations and conflicts that occur as people seek to make sense of suffering and their experiences Cosmologies whether incorporating the divine or as purely secular lead us to interpret human action and the human constitution its ills and its healing and in particular ways which determine and limit our very possibilities Deeper into the Occult Peter Underwood,1975 In an age when voodoo dancers have appeared in London when Robert Williams chief psychologist at Kansas State Industrial Reformatory admits to being a practising warlock when moon astronaut Edgar Mitchell conducts extra sensory experiments in space when the course of a 1 000 000 road is altered to save a fairy tree when a ghost is officially registered on a census form when Americans can dial a horoscope for a twenty four hour prophesy and when the complete skeleton of a cyclops is unearthed by archaeologists is it surprising that there is a growing interest in the occult for research in many fields simply proves that things are not what they seem The sequel to his successful Into the Occult 1973 Underwood delves deeper into this terrain attempting to find an explanation for a variety of phenomena that have baffled scientists and contradicted the basic tenets of their calling Using many case histories he discusses haunted music vampires superstitions and dowsing and divining Do Egyptian or family curses have any effect Is there any evidence to support the theory of reincarnation Does psychic surgery work What part have clairvoyants played in the solution of famous criminal cases Could there really be fairies at the bottom of your garden Through the investigation of these and other fascinating questions and the inclusion of extensive lists for further reading Underwood leads the enquirer to an awareness of the possibilities of the occult so that he may pursue an open minded approach for him or herself and like the author come to the realisation that things are indeed not always what they seem

Spirit Possession and Spirit Mediumship in Africa and Afro-America Irving Zaretsky,Cynthia Shambaugh,2019-06-19 Originally published in 1978 Spirit Possession and Spirit Mediumship in Africa and Afro America is an incredibly diverse and comprehensive bibliography on published works containing ethnographic data on and analysis of spirit possession and spirit mediumship in North and Sub Saharan Africa and in some Afro American communities in the Western Hemisphere The sources on Western Afro American communities were chosen to shed light on the African continent and the Americas The bibliography while not exhaustive provides extensive research on the area of research in spiritualism in Africa and Afro America The bibliography also provides unique sources on spirit cults ritual or ethnic groups and will be of especial interest to researchers Although published in the late 70s this book will still provide an incredibly useful research tool for academics in the area of religion with a focus on spiritualism and non western religions
