Analyzing Impacts of Conflict on Nation-building in Iraq Dai Yamao, 2025-09-26 This is the first monograph to empirically analyze the impact of the myriad conflicts that arose within Iraq in the wake of the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 on nation building It draws upon a plethora of primary sources including school textbooks and local newspapers in conjunction with a range of unique surveys quantitative text analysis and other methodologies This study represents a distinctive attempt to answer the question of why national cohesion has been maintained despite the occurrence of devastating conflicts and a brutal civil war in Iraq It employs unique data and a mixed methods approach to achieve this goal It has frequently been asserted that the Iraqi state descended into dysfunction and national unity was undermined as a consequence of the various conflicts that have occurred in the post war period However the author s multiple surveys revealed that despite a lack of trust in state institutions individuals have high expectations of their role Moreover there is a paucity of trust in non state actors who are responsible for fulfilling the functions of the state in its absence The surveys also indicate a robust sense of Iraqi identity in spite of the civil wars and conflicts that divide the population along with a high value placed on national integration policies This book elucidates the factors that have led to these contradictory attitudes Focusing centrally on issues surrounding post conflict nation building in Iraq the book also offers methodological suggestions for analyzing various aspects of the impact of conflict in other post war societies a topic that has not been thoroughly studied empirically

International Law and the War with Islamic State Saeed Bagheri, 2021-07-15 Armed non state actors ANSAs often have economic aims that international law needs to respond to This book looks at the aim of Islamic State to create an effective government with an economically independent regime which focused on key oilfields in Syria and Iraq Having addressed Islamic State s quest for energy resources in Iraq and Syria the book explores the lawfulness of the war with Islamic State from a variety of legal aspects It has been attempted to make inroads into the most controversial aspects of contradictions in the application of jus ad bellum and jus in bello particularly when discussing the use of extraterritorial armed force against ANSAs and the obligation to protect civilian objects including the natural environment The question is whether the targeting of energy resources should be regarded as a violation of the laws of armed conflict even though the war with Islamic State being classified as a non international armed conflict Ambitious in scope the study argues that legal theory and state practice are still problematic as to how and under what conditions states can justify resorting to military force in foreign territory and to what extent they can target natural resources as being part of state property Furthermore it goes on to examine the differences between international and non international armed conflicts to establish whether there is any difference in the targeting of energy resources as part of the war sustaining capabilities of either party Through an examination of the Islamic State case the book offers a comprehensive study to close the gaps in jus in bello by contextualising the questions of civilian protection victimisation and state responsibility by evaluating the US s war sustaining theory as a justification for the destruction of a territorial state s natural resources that are occupied by ANSAs of class estate interethnic contradictions and the confrontation of states However we know that all religions call for peace tolerance and understanding There is a need to realize that social injustice inequality and hostility toward any religious and ethnic groups fluctuates depending on the extent to which religious and ethnic differences are linked to economic political or national interests The Handbook of Research on Ethnic Racial and Religious Conflicts and Their Impact on State and Social Security forms a civil position and identity and provides knowledge of the development of conflict preconditions This research explains conflict avoidance and solutions and creates a solid base for ethnic and religious integration while being aware of conflict consequences and avoiding xenophobia Covering topics such as economic crisis radicalization and spiritual security this book is an indispensable resource for students of higher education professors faculty libraries researchers policymakers community leaders human rights activists religious leaders and academicians ISIS Beyond the Spectacle Mehdi Semati,Piotr M. Szpunar,Robert Alan Brookey,2020-04-02 What is ISIS A quasi state A terrorist group A movement An ideology As ISIS has transformed and mutated gained and lost territory horrified the world and been its punch line media have been central to understanding it The changing yet constant relationship between ISIS and the media as well as its adversaries dependency on media to make sense of ISIS is central to this book More than just the images of mutilated bodies that garnered ISIS its initial infamy the book considers an ISIS media world that includes infographics administrative reports and various depictions of a post racial utopia in which justice is swift and candy is bought and sold with its own currency The book reveals that the efforts of ISIS and its adversaries to communicate and make sense of this world share modes of visual aesthetic and journalistic practice and expression The short tumultuous history of ISIS does not allow for a single approach to understanding its relation to media Thus the book s contributions are to be read as contrapuntal analyses that productively connect and disconnect providing a much needed complex account of the ISIS media relationship This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies in Media Communication The Impacts of the Russo-Ukrainian War Hideaki Shinoda,Pavlo Fedorchenko-Kutuyev,2025-02-08 This open access book discusses conditions of conflict resolution over the Russo Ukrainian War and analyzes requirements for long term durable peace for Ukraine What are the impacts of the Russo Ukrainian War Do we really know them The authors examine this question from various perspective including conflict resolution theories international relations theories geopolitical theories domestic and regional politics regional security system public opinion and national identity of Ukraine etc In so doing the authors identify the war as a complex crux of many theoretical and practical issues like the merger of the Donbas War from 2014 with the full scale invasion by Russia in Ukraine as a typical example of internationalized internal wars The authors also seek to develop their findings to ask a question what are the agendas for durable peace for Ukraine The authors argue that the agendas should include ripeness theory security guarantees deterrence mechanisms geopolitical arrangements domestic national identity formation etc The authors do not necessarily address the question about the way the war can be terminated while the mode of the termination is within the scope of their investigation In any case however the authors seek to highlight the basic framework for durable peace in Ukraine Impact of Communication and the Media on Ethnic Conflict Gibson, Steven,2015-12-22

Cancer Care in Areas of Conflict Omar Shamieh, Fouad M. Fouad, Asem H. Mansour, Richard Sullivan, Tezer Kutluk, 2023-11-23 Cancer is a global burden with more than 18 million diagnosed and an estimate of 10 million deaths in 2020 worldwide. Cancer continues to be a major and growing problem in conflict-affected areas too. The incidence of cancer is expected to rise significantly in those countries compared to the rest of the world. Conflict, massive migration, and displacement has put a tremendous pressure on all health care systems and health economy, which halted improvement in many cancer care in majority of the countries. Countries affected by conflict like Syria, Ukraine, Iraq, Yemen, Latin America, and others have led to destruction of the whole country's healthcare infrastructure, including health care facilities, diagnostic facilities, and unavailability of drugs, and loss of health care professionals due to death, migration, or disabilities. This leads to inequitable access to care, lack of prevention, loss of screening programs, delay in diagnosis, loss of
