The Islamic Syncretistic Tradition In Bengal:

The Islamic Syncretistic Tradition in Bengal Asim Roy, 2014-07-14 Asim Roy argues that Islam in Bengal was not a corruption of the real Middle Eastern Islam as nineteenth century reformers claimed but a valid historical religion developed in an area totally different from the Middle East Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Islamic Syncretistic Tradition in Bengal Asim Roy, 1983-01-01 The Islamic Syncretistic Tradition in Bengal Asim Roy, 1983 The Islamic Syncretistic Tradition in Bengal Asīma Rāya, 1983 Syncretism/Anti-Syncretism Rosalind Shaw, Charles Stewart, 2003-12-16 The contributors explore the issues of agency and power which motivate the conflicting discourses surrounding syncretism that is the mixing of different religious traditions within a culture The Rise and Decline of the Islamic Syncretistic Tradition in South Asia, with Special Reference to Bengal John Muller, 2002 Religious Traditions in South Asia Geoffrey A. Oddie, 2022-02-22 These studies focus on questions of religious interaction and change in India from the sixth century B C to the present day They represent the work of scholars in a range of disciplines and who are resident mostly in Australia The Hindu Self and Its Muslim Neighbors Ankur Barua, 2022-04-25 In The Hindu Self and its Muslim Neighbors the author sketches the contours of relations between Hindus and Muslims in Bengal The central argument is that various patterns of amicability and antipathy have been generated towards Muslims over the last six hundred years and these patterns emerge at dynamic intersections between Hindu self understandings and social shifts on contested landscapes The core of the book is a set of translations of the Bengali writings of Rabindranath Tagore 1861 1941 Kazi Nazrul Islam 1899 1976 and Annada Shankar Ray 1904 2002 Their lives were deeply interwoven with some Hindu Muslim synthetic ideas and subjectivities and these involvements are articulated throughout their writings which provide multiple vignettes of contemporary modes of amity and antagonism Barua argues that the characterization of relations between Hindus and Muslims either in terms of an implacable hostility or of an unfragmented peace is historically inaccurate for these relations were modulated by a shifting array of socio economic and socio political parameters It is within these contexts that Rabindranath Nazrul and Annada Shankar are developing their thoughts on Hindus and Muslims through the prisms of religious humanism and universalism The Bengal Diaspora Claire Alexander, Joya Chatterji, Annu Jalais, 2015-11-06 India's partition in 1947 and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 saw the displacement and resettling of millions of Muslims and Hindus resulting in profound transformations across the region A third of the region's population sought shelter across new borders almost all of them resettling in the Bengal delta itself A similar number were internally displaced while others moved to the Middle East North America and Europe Using a creative interdisciplinary approach combining historical sociological and anthropological approaches to migration and diaspora this book explores the experiences of Bengali Muslim migrants through this period of upheaval and transformation It draws on over 200 interviews conducted in Britain India and Bangladesh tracing migration and settlement within and from the Bengal delta region in the period after 1947 Focussing on migration and diaspora from below it teases out fascinating hidden migrant stories including those of women refugees and displaced people It reveals surprising similarities and important differences in the experience of Muslim migrants in widely different contexts and places whether in the towns and hamlets of Bengal delta or in the cities of Britain Counter posing accounts of the structures that frame migration with the textures of how migrants shape their own movement it examines what it means to make new homes in a context of diaspora The book is also unique in its focus on the experiences of those who stayed behind and in its analysis of ruptures in the migration process Importantly the book seeks to challenge crude attitudes to Muslim migrants which assume their cultural and religious homogeneity and to humanize contemporary discourses around global migration This ground breaking new research offers an essential contribution to the field of South Asian Studies Diaspora Studies and Society and Culture Studies Women and Islam in Bangladesh T. Hashmi,2000-03-10 This work of research by Taj Hashmi puts the issue of women s position in society in historical as well as Islamic perspectives to relate it to the objective conditions in Bangladesh In eight illuminating chapters he narrates how Quranic edicts about women have through the ages been misinterpreted by the power elites and the mullahs to suppress women Even NGOs are not immune from exploiting them Hope according to the author lies in the literacy and economic self reliance of the Bangladeshi women Trade, Politics and Society Sushil Chaudhury,2016-09-13 The essays in the volume deal with a broad range factors integral to Indian history in the early modern era They unfold many facets of the trade politics and society of the country and offer new perspectives which will help dispel some long held misconceptions The first part of the book is concerned mainly with trade and commerce in Bengal while subsequent chapters provide an extensive survey of maritime trade in the Indian Ocean and the unique contribution of Armenian communities in Dhaka s commercial and social life of the eighteenth century Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Songs of Wisdom and Circles of Dance Tazim R. Kassam,1995-01-01 This is a survey of the Ismaili Muslim traditions and a translation of many Santpanth Ismaili Ginans hymns Islam in the World Today Werner Ende,Udo Steinbach,2011-12-15 Considered the most authoritative single volume reference work on Islam in the contemporary world the German language Der Islam in der Gegenwart currently in its fifth edition offers a wealth of authoritative information on the religious political social and cultural life of Islamic nations and of Islamic immigrant communities elsewhere Now Cornell University Press is making this invaluable resource accessible to English language readers More current than the latest German edition on which it is based Islam in the World Today covers a comprehensive

Lived Islam A. Kevin Reinhart, 2020-06-11 This book is designed to serve as a text for courses on modern Islam It challenges misleading questions which foster assumptions of Islam as a monolithic essence to instead argue that Islam like all religions is complex and thus best understood through analogy with language
