Designs of Destruction Lucia Allais, 2018-10-16 How historical preservation efforts to protect architectural monuments arose in the twentieth century The twentieth century was highly destructive but from its landscapes of ruins was born a new architectural type the cultural monument In the wake of World War I an international movement arose which aimed to protect architectural monuments in large numbers and regardless of style hoping not only to keep them safe from future conflicts but also to make them worthy of protection from more quotidian forms of destruction An evolving group including architects intellectuals art historians archaeologists curators and lawyers grew out of the new diplomacy of the League of Nations During and after World War II it became affiliated with the Allied Military Government and was eventually absorbed by the UN as UNESCO By the 1970s this organization had begun granting World Heritage status to a global register of significant sites from buildings to bridges shrines to city centers ruins to colossi Examining key episodes in the history of this preservation effort including projects for the Parthenon the Cathedral of St. Louis the temples of Abu Simbel and the Bamiyan Buddhas Lucia Allais demonstrates how the group deployed the notion of culture to shape architectural sites and how architecture in turn shaped the very idea of global culture Designs of Destruction emphasizes how the technical project of ensuring various buildings longevity jolted preservation into establishing a transnational set of codes values and practices At the same time this paradoxically helped integrate technologies of destruction from bombs to bulldozers into cultural governance Designs of Destruction not only offers a fascinating narrative of cultural diplomacy based on extensive archival findings it also contributes an important new chapter in the intellectual history of modernity by showing the manifold ways architectural form is charged with concretizing abstract ideas and ideals even in its destruction

Lobban Jr., 2021-04-10 This new book descends from a former combined reference book on Ancient and Medieval Nubia but now expands and focuses primarily on Prehistoric and Ancient times It contextualizes the foundational roots of human evolution in the Paleolithic and Mesolithic stone ages and on to the Neolithic revolution built on farming and livestock Meanwhile Kerma was the most ancient African states and their relationship with dynastic Egypt Precisely ancient Kerma a was a serious political economic and military rival to Old and Middle Kingdoms of Egypt But in the New Kingdom the balance of regional forces was dramatically changed with Egyptians defeating Kerma and occupying and colonizing Kush Nubia for 500 years In the 11th century BCE the political unity of Egypt withered away and after recovering from foreign exploitation Nubians began to reconstitute a small state at Kurru with renewed pyramid building and then finding no Egyptian resistance these Nubians kings advanced on Egyptian Nubia and then on to Upper Egypt Finally Nubians were able to take over all of Egypt as the pharaohs of century long Dynasty XXV This so called Ethiopian dynasty had the famed pharaohs of Piankhy Shabaka Shabataka Taharka and Tanutamun ruling for various terms three of who are mentioned in the Biblical Old Testament Even when Nubians were expelled from Egypt by foreign Assyrian invaders they retreated to Napata to carry on their ancient state for three more independent centuries as Egyptian remained conquered by various foreigners for 2 500 years Most notable of these foreign conquerors of Egypt were the Greeks Ptolemies and the Roman who arrived and polytheists and left as Christians During this Greco Roman period in Egypt Nubians strategically withdrew still further south to the Kingdom of Mero from the 4th century BCE to the 4th century CE Meroe is also covered in great detail as it was famed for many regnant queens a unique and undeciphered writing system iron production and important monumental works including more pyramids than found in Egypt Yes smaller and later but many more pyramids that are still standing in several World Heritage sites in Nubia After Mero began a long decline it was finally vulnerable to attack from Christian Axum on the 4th century CE Two murky centuries of regional rule known as the X Group were to follow but by the 6th century Nubians recreated three Christian states that are covered in detail in the following Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia and the Historical Dictionary of Sudan for Islamic and modern times

Arnold, 1997 Five distinguished scholars here summarize the state of current knowledge about ancient Egyptian temples and the rituals associated with their use The first volume in English to survey the major types of Egyptian temples from the Old Kingdom to the Roman period it offers a unique perspective on ritual and its cultural significance The authors perceive temples as loci for the creative interplay of sacred space and sacred time They regard as unacceptable the traditional division of the temples into the categories of mortuary and divine believing that their functions and symbolic representations were at once too varied and too intertwined Both informative to scholars and accessible to students the book combines descriptions of specific temples with new insights into their development and purposes
