Dear Sir

The principal object of the settlement of the administration of my father's estate being to make a final settlement between my brother and myself, to know what debts remain due from the estate and by whom they are to be paid, what monies are due to it and by whom they are to be received, I have proceeded with that view to consider the papers which yourself and Mr Nicholas were so kind as to send the other day. The accounts of Hopper & Co. needing some corrections and explanations which Mr Nicholas alone can probably give, we have concluded to go to his house the day after tomorrow, that being the only day which my short stay here and my engagements will permit me to go from home. but there are several points upon which we must ask your & Mr Nicholas' opinions which will be decisive for us where they concur & where you differ we will take a middle term.

1. During a part of the time that I was a student in Williamsburg my expenses were greater than they ought to have been. it was therefore agreed that they should be paid by the estate but that I should repay so much as they exceeded what they ought to have
