The Jewish Imagination Discourses On Contemporary Jewish Life:

The Jewish Imagination Basil Herring,1989 The Spiritual Roots of Restorative Justice Michael L.

Hadley,2001-02-08 This interdisciplinary study explores what major spiritual traditions say in text tradition and current practice about criminal justice in general and Restorative Justice in particular It reflects the close collaboration of scholars and professionals engaged in multifaith reflection on the theory and practice of criminal law A variety of traditions are explored Aboriginal spirituality Buddhism Chinese religions Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and Sikhism Drawing on a wide range of literature and experience in the field of Restorative Justice and recognizing the ongoing interdisciplinary research into the complex relationships between religion and violence the contributors clarify how faith based principles of reconciliation restoration and healing might be implemented in pluralistic multicultural societies Postmodern Love in the Contemporary Jewish Imagination Efraim Sicher,2022-03-17 Offering a radical critique of contemporary Israeli and diaspora fiction by major writers of the generation after Amos Oz and Philip Roth this book asks searching questions about identity formation in Jewish spaces in the twenty first century and posits global transnational identities instead of the bipolar Israel diaspora model The chapters put into conversation major authors such as Jonathan Safran Foer Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Nathan Englander with their Israeli counterparts Zeruya Shalev Eshkol Nevo and Etgar Keret and shows that they share common themes and concerns Read through a postmodern lens their preoccupation with failed marriage and failed ideals brings to the fore the crises of home nation historical destiny and collective memory in contemporary secular Jewish culture At times provocative at others iconoclastic this innovative study must be read by anyone concerned with Jewish culture and identity today whether scholars students or the general reader The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Imagining the Jewish Future David A. Teutsch,2012-02-01 During a time of rapid change in the American Jewish community an outstanding group of Jewish scholars and professionals address the critical problems and future prospects of American Jewry They discuss the sharp controversies over feminism and religious language new data on the relationship between Israelis and American Jews and the interaction between family and synagogue The wide scope of topics provides an understanding of the dynamics shaping the lives of American Jews and their diverse views of the future English Origins, Jewish Discourse, and the Nineteenth-century British Novel Heidi Kaufman,2009 Examines the embedding of Jewish history and culture in depictions of English racial and national identity in nineteenth century novels

Imagining the American Jewish Community Jack Wertheimer,2007 A lively collection of sixteen essays on the many ways American Jews have imagined and constructed communities Jewish Life in

Medieval Spain Jonathan Ray,2023-03-28 Jewish Life in Medieval Spain is a detailed exploration of the Jewish experience in medieval Spain from the dawn of Sephardic society in the ninth century to the expulsion of 1492 An important contribution of the book is the integration of the rise and fall of Jewish life in Muslim al Andalus into the history of the Jews in medieval Christian Spain It traces the collapse of Jewish life in Muslim Spain the emigration of Andalusí Jewry to the lands of Christian Iberia and the long and difficult confluence of these two distinct Jewish subcultures Focusing on internal developments of Jewish society it offers a narrative of Jewish history from the inside out bringing to light the various divisions and rivalries within the Jewish community This approach in turn allows for a deeper understanding of the complex relations between Spanish Jews and their Muslim and Christian neighbors Jonathan Ray's original perspective on the Jewish experience is particularly instructive when considering the widescale anti Jewish riots of 1391 The combination of violence and mass conversion of the Jews irrevocably shifted the dynamics of inter religious relations as well as those within the Jewish community itself Yet even in the wake of these tragic events the Jews of Spain continued to flourish fostering a culture that they would carry into exile and that would preserve the memory of Jewish Spain for centuries to come

Healing and the Jewish Imagination Rabbi William Cutter, 2011-03-29 Where Judaism and health intersect healing may begin Essential reading for people interested in the Jewish healing spirituality and spiritual direction movements this groundbreaking volume explores the Jewish tradition for comfort in times of illness and Judaism's perspectives on the inevitable suffering with which we live Pushing the boundaries of Jewish knowledge scholars teachers artists and activists examine the aspects of our mortality and the important distinctions between curing and healing Topics discussed include The Importance of the Individual Health and Healing among the Mystics Hope and the Hebrew Bible From Disability to Enablement Overcoming Stigma Jewish Bioethics Drawing from literature personal experience and the foundational texts of Judaism these celebrated thinkers show us that healing is an idea that can both soften us so that we are open to inspiration as well as toughen us like good scar tissue in order to live with the consequences of being human

Jews in the Early Modern English Imagination Dr Eva Johanna Holmberg, 2013-07-28 Based on travel writings religious history and popular literature Jews in the Early Modern English Imagination explores the encounter between English travellers and the Jews While literary and religious traditions created an image of Jews as untrustworthy even sinister travellers came to know them in their many and diverse communities with rich traditions and intriguing life styles The Jew of the imagination encountered the Jew of town and village in southern Europe North Africa and the Levant Coming from an England riven by religious disputes and often by political unrest travellers brought their own questions about identity national character religious belief and the quality of human relations to their encounter with the scattered nation

Discourse on the State of the Jews Simone Luzzatto, 2019-07-08 The series Studies and Texts in Scepticism contains monographs translations and collected essays exploring scepticism in its dual manifestation as a purely philosophical tradition and as a set of sceptical strategies concepts and attitudes in the cultural field especially in religions perhaps most notably in Judaism In such cultural contexts scepticism manifests as a critical attitude towards different dimensions and systems of secular or revealed knowledge and towards religious and political authorities It is not merely an intellectual or theoretical worldview but a critical form of life that expresses itself in such diverse phenomena as religion literature and society Further book series of the Maimonides Centre for Advanced Studies are Jewish Thought Philosophy and Religion and the Yearbook of the Maimonides Centre for Advances Studies Yearnings of the Soul Jonathan Garb, 2015-11-23 Jonathan Garb's Yearnings of the Soul Psychological Thought in Modern Kabbalah is an original path breaking study of the renderings of the heart and soul in the works of major minor and obscure but important figures of modern Kabbalah Garb has unearthed a treasure trove of neglected figures and texts bringing into dialogue their views on heart and soul with those found in other religious and secular authorities There is no other study that comes close to the territory Garb covers or for that matter provides the historical and cultural context necessary for understanding the rise of such psychological renderings in the works of the modern Kabbalists His analysis shows that any attempt to essentialize the multiple and varied understandings of heart and soul in Jewish mysticism is mistaken Analyzing text and figure in context on a case by case basis Garb is able to provide comparison without being reductive This is an invaluable contribution to the discipline that cements Garb as the leading scholar of modern Kabbalah Imagined Non-Jews Ohad Reznick, 2024-08-05 Racial passing has fascinated thousands of American readers since the end of the nineteenth century However the phenomenon of Jews passing as gentiles has been all but overlooked This book examines forgotten novels depicting Jewish Americans masquerading as gentiles Exploring two waves of publications of this subgenre in the 1940s 1950s and 1990s 2000s this book raises questions about the perceptions of Jewish difference during these periods Looking at issues such as Whiteness Americanness gender and race it traces the changes in the representation of Jewish identity during the second half of the twentieth century and the beginning of the new millennium Ohad Reznick's Imagined Non Jews is an important intervention in the scholarship on the literature of passing This book also makes a significant contribution to Jewish American literary studies through thoughtful close readings of texts from the 1940s and 1950s many of them little known today as well as multi ethnic American fiction from the turn of the 21st century all of them featuring characters who conceal their Jewishness in order to pass for gentile Lori Harrison Kahan Boston College author of The White Negress Literature Minstrelsy and the Black Jewish Imaginary Modernist Writings and Religio-scientific Discourse L. Vetter, 2010-04-26 Addresses the early twentieth century intersection of scientific and religious discourse exploring literary modernism through the lens of cultural history focusing on the works of H D Mina Loy and Jean Toomer It covers a range of topics such as electromagnetism and sexuality dance and theories of spiritual evolution Cinema and Social Change in Germany and Austria Gabriele Mueller, James M. Skidmore, 2012-08-30 During the last decade contemporary German and Austrian cinema has grappled with new social and economic realities The cinema of consensus a term coined to describe the popular and commercially oriented filmmaking of the 1990s has given way to a more heterogeneous and critical cinema culture Making the greatest artistic impact since the 1970s contemporary cinema is responding to questions of globalization and the effects of societal and economic change on the individual This book explores this trend by investigating different thematic and aesthetic strategies and alternative methods of film production and distribution Functioning both as a product and as an agent of globalizing processes this new cinema mediates and influences important political and social debates The contributors illuminate these processes through their analyses of cinema's intervention in discourses on such concepts as national cinema the effects of globalization on social mobility and the emergence of a global culture The essays illustrate the variety and inventiveness of contemporary Austrian and German filmmaking and highlight the complicated interdependencies between global developments and local specificities They confirm a broader trend toward a more complex critical and formally diverse cinematic scene This book offers insights into the strategies employed by German and Austrian filmmakers to position themselves between the commercial pressures of the film industry and the desire to mediate or even attempt to affect social change It will be of interest to scholars in film studies cultural studies and European studies

Imagining the Self, Imagining the Other Eva Frojmovic, 2021-10-05 This collection revisits the complex subject of medieval visual representations of Jews and Judaism by themselves and by Christians The topics range from questions of Jewish identity in Iberian illuminated Hebrew manuscripts 13th 14th centuries to representations of Synagoga and Judas in the Bible Moralis e and cathedral sculpture to early modern Jewish self images The essays are prefaced by a critical study of the discovery of medieval Jewish art among art historians and cultural activists ca 1900 35 The volume will be of value to art historians as well as medieval and early modern historians with an interest in Jewish culture and Jewish Christian relations Contributors include Michael Batteredman Marc Michael Epstein Eva Frojmovic Thomas Hubka Sara Lipton Annette Weber and Diane Wolfthal

Sedaqa and Torah in Postexilic Discourse Susanne Gillmayr-Bucher, Maria Häusl, 2017-07-13 The chapters in this volume clarify crucial aspects of Torah by exploring its relationship to sedaqa righteousness Observing the Torah is often considered to be the main identity marker of Israel in the post exilic period However sedaqa is also widely used as a force of group cohesion and as a resource for ethics without references to torah The contributors to this volume explore these crucial themes for the post exilic period and show how they are related in the key texts that feature them Though torah and sedaqa can have some aspects in common especially when they are amended by aspects of creation both terms are rarely linked to each other explicitly in the Old Testament and if so different relations are expressed These are examined in this book The opening of the book of Isaiah is shown to integrate torah learning into a life of righteousness sedaqa In Deuteronomy sedaqa is shown to refer to torah dictacticism and in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah torah can be understood as symbol of sedaqa meaning the disposition of each individual to accept torah as prescriptive law However the chapters also show that these relationships are not exclusive and that sedaqa is not always linked to torah for in late texts of Isaiah sedaqa is not realized by torah observance but by observing the Sabbath

The Discourse of Repatriation in Britain, 1845-2016 Daniel Renshaw, 2021-03-04 Examining responses to migration and settlement in Britain from the Irish Famine up to Brexit The

Discourse of Repatriation looks at how concepts of removal evolved in this period and the varied protagonists who have articulated these ideas in different contexts Analysing the relationship between discourse and action Renshaw explores how ideas and language originating on the peripheries of debate on migration and belonging can permeate the mainstream and transform both discussion and policy The book sheds light both on how the migrant other has been viewed in Britain historically and contemporaneously and more broadly how the relationship between state press and populace has developed from the early Victorian period onwards It identifies key junctures where the concept of the removal of othered groups has crossed over from the rhetorical to the actual and considers why this was the case Based on extensive original archival research the book reassesses modern British history through the lens of the most polarised attitudes to immigration and demographic change This book will be of use to readers with an interest in migration diaspora the development of populism and political extremes and more broadly the history of modern Britain Jewish and Non-Jewish Spaces in the Urban

Context Maria Cieřła, Saskia Coenen Snyder, Eszter Gantner, Frank Golczewski, François Guesnet, Felix Heinert, Jürgen Heyde, Alexis Hofmeister, Wolfgang Kaschuba, Martin Kindermann, Nora Lafi, Ruth Leiserowitz, Diana I. Popescu, Monica Rüthers, Anne-Christin Saß, Joachim Schlör, Magdalena Waligórska, Mirjam Zadoff, 2015-09-22 The unifying thread of the interdisciplinary volume Jewish and Non Jewish Spaces in the Urban Context is the fact that Jewish spaces are almost always generated in relation to non Jewish spaces they determine and influence each other This general phenomenon will be scrutinized and put to the test again and again in a varied collection of articles by international experienced researchers as well as junior scholars using various urban contexts and discourses as data From the viewpoints of different temporal and regional research traditions and disciplines the contributors deal with the question of how Jewish and non Jewish spaces are imagined constructed negotiated and intertwined All examples and case studies together create a mosaic of possibilities for the construction of Jewish and non Jewish spaces in different settings The list of examined topics ranges from synagogues to ghettos from urban neighborhoods to caf s and festivals from art to literature This diversity makes the volume a challenging effort of giving an overview of the current academic discussion in Europe and beyond Although the majority of the contributions are focused on Central and Eastern Europe a more general tendency becomes apparent in all articles the negotiation of urban spaces seems to be a complex and ambivalent process in which a large number of participants are involved In this regard the volume would also like to contribute to trans disciplinary urban studies and critical research on spatial relations Unsettling Jewish Knowledge Anne C. Dailey, Martin Kavka, Lital Levy, 2023-09-08 Spanning the fields of literature history philosophy and theology Unsettling Jewish Knowledge adopts a fresh approach to the study of Jewish thought and culture By creatively foregrounding the role of emotions senses and the imagination in Jewish experience the book invites readers to consider what it means for Jewish identity and experience to be constituted outside the frameworks of reasoned thought and inquiry The collection s eight essays offer innovative and provocative approaches to a diverse array of

topics including modern Jewish Christian relations the book of Isaiah contemporary Jewish fiction and philosophical meditations on Jewish law Their bold interpretations of Jewish texts and histories are centered on questions of faith loss prejudice and enchantment and the darker implications of these questions The book s essays also illuminate the importance of desire as a key motivating force in the pursuit of knowledge Weaving together insights from several disciplines Unsettling Jewish Knowledge challenges us to grapple with the unexpected the unconventional and the uncomfortable aspects of Jewish experience and its representations Contributors Anne C Dailey John Efron Yael S Feldman Galit Hasan Rokem Martin Kavka Lital Levy Shaul Magid Eva Mroczek Paul E Nahme Eli Schonfeld Shira Stav
