The First Love Story Bruce Feiler, 2018-03-20 An exploration of the way Adam and Eve introduced the idea of love into the world and how they continue to shape our deepest feelings about relationships family and togetherness Since antiquity Adam and Eve have stood at the center of every conversation about men and women Yet instead of celebrating them history has blamed them for bringing sin deceit and death into the world In this fresh retelling of their story Bruce Feiler travels from the Garden of Eden in Iraq to the Sistine Chapel in Rome discovering how Adam and Eve should be hailed as exemplars of a long term healthy resilient relationship At a time of discord and fear over the strength of our social fabric Feiler shows how history's first couple can again be role models for unity forgiveness and love

The Mating Trade Robert Mullan, 2022-02-23 Are marriages made in heaven In reality many people need a little help in the arrangement of such matters whether from Jewish shadkhans matchmakers go betweens computer or video dating agencies marriage bureaux Asian arranged marriages gay dating agencies or personal ads Originally published in 1984 the author's clear sighted look at the mating trade takes some of the mystique away from the subject and is the first serious and detailed account of the third party in marriage Dr Mullan looks at the singles scene and the arranged marriage historically and cross culturally and makes it clear that there is nothing necessarily odd or deviant about the mating trade It is a business like any other and as long as people continue to want perfect partners marriage permanent relationships dates and sex and while evolving social structures make such demands ever more difficult to meet the business will thrive It could even expand and grow but the

Love as Common Ground Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life
