THE JOURNAL OF ASIAN STUDIES: VOL. 58, NO 2, MAY 1999 , Climate Change, Ecological Catastrophe, and the Contemporary Postcolonial Novel Justyna Poray-Wybranowska, 2020-12-21 Climate Change Ecological Catastrophe and the Contemporary Novel responds to the critical need for transdisciplinary research on the relationship between colonialism and catastrophe It represents the first sustained analysis of the connection between colonial legacy and present day ecological catastrophe in postcolonial fiction Analyzing contemporary South Asian and South Pacific novels that grapple with climate change and catastrophe environmental exploitation and instability and human nonhuman relationships in degraded environments it offers a much needed corrective to dominant narratives about climate crisis and the everyday Highlighting the contributions of literary fiction from the postcolonial South to the growing field of the environmental humanities this book reconsiders the novel's relationship with climate change and the contemporary environmental imaginary Counter to dominant current theoretical discourses it demonstrates that the novel form is ideally suited to literary and imaginative engagements with climate change and ecological catastrophe The six case studies it examines connect contemporary ecological vulnerability to colonial legacies reveal the critical role animals and the environment play in literary imaginations of post catastrophe recovery and together constellate a decolonial perspective on ecological catastrophe in the era of climate change Drawing on the work of Indigenous authors and scholars who write about and against the Anthropocene this book displaces conventional ways of thinking about the relationship between the mundane and the catastrophic and promotes greater dialogue between the largely siloed fields of postcolonial Indigenous and disaster studies

Postcolonial Animalities Suvadip Sinha, Amit Baishya, 2019-09-02 Postcolonial Animalities co edited by Suvadip Sinha and Amit R Baishya brings together ten essays to consider the interfaces between human and animal and the concrete presence of animals in postcolonial cultural production This edited collection critiques monohumanist conceptions of the human and considers the co constitutiveness of imaginaries of the human with grammars of animality One of the central contributions of this volume is to decolonize existing conceptualizations of the human animal relationship and to consider the material representation of animals within the realm of colonial and postcolonial cultural production from the perspective of ethical alterity and alternative narratives of anticolonial and postcolonial politics The volume also explores entanglements of race and species in colonial and neocolonial frameworks without transforming such inquiries into a zero sum game that privileges one category over another The essays in the volume focusing on multiple geographical locations ranging from South Asia Southeast Asia post Ottoman Turkey the Caribbean Australia South Africa and Palestine Israel historicizes and understands multispecies interspecies and transspecies encounters affiliations and connections in and through their localized dimensions and studies human animal encounters in their varied and complex affective relationalities Through such inquiries the volume considers how modes of representing animals including located forms of anthropomorphism and zoomorphism help us think with and

Anghelescu, Bradley Allard, 2022-10-24 Volume 1 of Inside Major East Asian Library Collections in North America presents an extensive collection of interviews that give key insights into Japanese and Korean librarianship      State, Law and Gender Shreya Roy, 2023-12-12 A critical analysis of marriage law in India from the late nineteenth to early twentieth century In State Law and Gender Shreya Roy highlights how Indian law has been implicated in women's subordination It explores the ideological expectations that underpin women's legal regulation as well as the traditions in which law subjugates women the multifaceted and elusive ways wherein law validates profoundly gender based suppositions relationships and characters The book demonstrates that the correlation of moral precepts and legal norms is associated with the broader history of the age of marriage of girls in India and it has also shown how history includes diverse alternatives to understanding and addressing the problem of child marriages that do not rely on liberal legal frameworks The book critically analyzes and evaluates the social and legislative history of the period focusing particularly on three significant pieces of legislation Act III of 1872 the Age of Consent Act of 1891 and the Child Marriage Restraint Act of 1929 It traces the history of the legal changes related to the age of marriage in India after Independence and links this issue with the present day concern and the Government's initiative for raising the age of marriage of girls      Reading Contemporary South Asian Literature Bidhu Chand Murmu, Somjeeta Pandey, 2022-04-12 As a school of criticism the central argument in Postcolonial studies revolves around dismantling the dominant narrative of colonial or imperial history A colonization process not only captures the native people and culture but their lands too Proper reading of postcolonial theory would be by understanding the epistemology of colonized environment or vice versa Even after decolonization the ideology of imperialism is persistent in native memory and thought An embeddedness in native psyche not only nurtures imperialism but manifests them with the footprints of colonial masters In postcolonial countries the discourse of social and economic justice is deeply rooted in ecology As a consequence environmental activists from postcolonial nations tend to see any modern policy as a disguised form of neocolonialism or imperial dominance globalization and modernization Since the shocks of imperialism and globalization are most strongly felt in the third world countries most of them being former colonies this edited volume intends to explore texts by South Asian writers examining how these writers and their characters cope with the destruction of the environment This edited volume plans to seek out the writings of epistemological understanding of our environment Moreover the volume would also see a critical entanglement of race class gender culture modernization globalization nation and trans nation etc Furthermore this book will attempt to show how different genres of literature ranging from fiction to non fiction can bring out inimitable insights into varied understanding of postcolonial and ecocritical studies Imagined Mobility Michiel Baas,2012-10 This book critically examines the history and current issues on the migration of Indian students to Australia The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 21, Number 2 (Fall 2016) Donald Baker,Tracy L. changing post modern urban context especially following the financial crisis of 1997 Defining the cultural nature of Thai urbanity the implications for local global flows interactions and emergent social formations James Taylor opens up new possibilities in understanding the specificities of everyday urban life as this relates to perceptions conceptions and lived experiences of religiosity Changes in the centre are also reverberating in the remaining forests and the monastic tradition of forest dwelling which has sourced most of the nation s modern saints The text is based on ethnography taking into account the rich variety of everyday practices in a m lange of the religious In Thailand Buddhism is so intimately interconnected with national identity and social economic and ethno political concerns as to be inseparable Taylor argues here that in recent years there has been a marked reformulation of important conventional cosmologies through new and challenging Buddhist ideas and practices These influences and changes are as much located outside as inside the Buddhist temples monasteries

Alternative Futures and the Present Ranabir Samaddar,2023-05-05 This book explores the idea that alternatives to our present condition are available in the present such that a search for alternatives must involve rigorous study of some of its central texts events and thinkers Through engagement with selected modern thinkers texts and events it imagines a different future from the position of the current postcolonial moment indicating the possibilities that emerge from the present and which shape contemporary radical thinking An invitation to imagine a possible future marked with alternative possibilities of conducting struggles and living through contentions and social restructuring it will appeal to scholars with interests in social and political theory political philosophy colonialism and postcolonialism and historical materialism

Hyper City Peter J.M. Nas,Annemarie Samuels,2013-10-28 First published in 2006 Cities are sites of multiple meanings and symbols ranging from statues and street names to festivals and architecture Some times the symbolic side of urbanism is so strong that it outshines reality then we speak of hypercity Urban symbolic ecology and hypercity studies are relatively new fields that deal with the production distribution and consumption of symbols and meanings in urban space timely concerns in an era of increasing globalization and competition between mega urban regions This volume presents a detailed introduction to the new fields followed by case studies of the cultural layer of symbolism in Brussels Belgium Cape Town South Africa Cuenca Ecuador Delft The Netherlands Kingston Jamaica Ljubljana Slovenia Paris France and cities in Italy and Indonesia It amply demonstrates that the time has come for urban symbolic ecology and hypercity studies to be included in regular urban studies training in the fields of anthropology sociology social geography and architecture

Chinese Complaint Systems Qiang Fang,2013 Despite the rich heritage of numerous complaint systems in Chinese history most Western as well as Chinese studies of one or more complaint systems in the PRC and earlier periods have paid little systematic attention to the origins development practices impact and nature of similar institutions in the longue dur e of Chinese history This book fills this gap providing the reader with a comprehensive study of complaint systems in Chinese history from early times to the present As such it will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Chinese history politics and law

The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 Introduction

In the digital age, access to information has become easier than ever before. The ability to download The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 has revolutionized the way we consume written content. Whether you are a student looking for course material, an avid reader searching for your next favorite book, or a professional seeking research papers, the option to download The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 has opened up a world of possibilities. Downloading The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 provides numerous advantages over physical copies of books and documents. Firstly, it is incredibly convenient. Gone are the days of carrying around heavy textbooks or bulky folders filled with papers. With the click of a button, you can gain immediate access to valuable resources on any device. This convenience allows for efficient studying, researching, and reading on the go. Moreover, the cost-effective nature of downloading The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 has democratized knowledge. Traditional books and academic journals can be expensive, making it difficult for individuals with limited financial resources to access information. By offering free PDF downloads, publishers and authors are enabling a wider audience to benefit from their work. This inclusivity promotes equal opportunities for learning and personal growth. There are numerous websites and platforms where individuals can download The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58. These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from. In conclusion, the ability to download The Journal Of Asian Studies Volume 58 has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
