The Journey Why Are Their Lost Sheep The Journey:

The Lucan Journey Maria Yen Thi Do, 2010 This work investigates the Lucan journey motif from a literary and theological perspective It starts by examining the indications of movement in the narrative sequence of the Gospel Using the historical critical method the author continues with a study of the Transfiguration Luke 9 28 36 and the Ascension Acts 1 6 11 narratives and presents a comparison between them The work concludes with an investigation of the Lucan journey in the two volume work of Luke On the literary level the author suggests that the Transfiguration and the Ascension narratives are composed as an architectural pair and in turn serve as the respective starting points for the parallel journeys in Luke Acts On the theological level she shows that the two journeys are in fact two stages of the one unique journey namely the journey of the Salvific Message Thus the author provides a further confirmation of the unity of the two volume work of Luke spent a decade reading the prophecy and then read only the parables and left out the extra parts of the stories that introduced them By reading only the parables he was able to see how they tell a story that is explained by linking them together from first to last Historical Lectures on the Life of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Being the Hulsean Lectures for the Year 1859 Charles John ELLICOTT (Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.),1860 Christian Register and Boston Observer,1916

Authentic Holistic Education, Wellbeing, and the Future of Catholic Schools in a Changing World Graeme J. Mellor, 2025-04-28 This book addresses the effects of the changed and changing contexts of Catholic Education in the contemporary world These include the social educational and ecclesial contexts Meaning structures shaped by these past contexts have broken down and the greatest but often unarticulated context is the anthropological context The understanding of humanity and the meaning of human existence today is beset by a marked lack of clarity and consistent direction Catholic Education today exists within contextual fields which are almost unrecognizable from those which existed at the close of the Second World War Each succeeding decade since has wrought stark and dynamic change socially educationally and religiously As such Catholic Education today looks for a direction forward and a sense of purpose into the future This book proposes that the major purpose of contemporary Catholic Education is to provide an educational context that nurtures the true holistic growth of students within its care The focus upon Christian Humanism in contemporary Papal and Magisterial teaching sets the ground for this developing understanding
