ranging in content from a post apocalyptic suburb coping with rumours of cannibalism to a movie theatre in Mauritius where dreams of a better future flicker onscreen to a mattress store where a long lasting friendship threatens to come undone For each of us it was a chance to partake in a process that now stretches back twenty five years a sneak peak at authors who in the future will likely become favourites Miranda Hill Mark Medley and Russell Wangersky from their Introduction Among the stories this year Brimming with restless energy Doretta Lau's How Does a Single Blade of Grass Thank the Sun is a sometimes provocative portrait of adolescent angst and rebellion set among a gang of dragoons growing up in Vancouver It vividly brings to life a twenty first century culture clash and illuminates the struggles and alienation of Chinese youth whether from Hong Kong or the Mainland now living in Lotus Land Doretta Lau's story positively hums the language a well shaken cocktail of influences ranging from hip hop and Asian cinema to Chinese history and the slang of the West As vibrant and colourful as graffiti Well timed and yet still carefully fractured enough to be jarring Eliza Robertson s My Sister Sang is a marvel of unexpected directions and sharp edges A deftly told story of two eavesdroppers one a linguist the other professionally tuned to acoustics who listen over and over to every scrap of a tragedy Even with the distance and detachment of its characters from the centre of its disaster there is no easy peace no mere scientific examination of cause and effect this is writing as carefully crafted and fine as pastry with thin perfect layers where every line serves to strengthen the rest Nabon Ruthnum s Cinema Rex is as rich and visual as the films at its centre which play on the new movie screen in one neighbourhood of Mauritius in the 1950s The author beautifully draws the connections between the changing community inundated by Hollywood and after school English lessons and a season of vital shifts for three friends transitioning out of boyhood Full of heady sensory details Ruthnum s deft observations of family and class interactions create an entire world of established histories and hierarchies even though the reader is only privy to a sliver of these stories The Journey to Jerusalem Avraham Adgah,2011 The Journey to Jerusalem is the story of one man s journey and the story of an entire nation Avraham Adgah was born in Ethiopia to a Jewish community that constantly dreamed of Israel and of Jerusalem In the 1970s after years of yearning thousands of Ethiopian Jews began the journey to the Promised Land to the Land of Israel The Journey to Jerusalem is a true story that breaks the boundaries of imagination with a determination that overcomes every obstacle
