The Black Knight Roelof Steenbeek, 2014-11-28 To date I have never piloted a biplane but for many nights before I had any thought of writing this book I dreamed I was sitting in the cockpit of a black biplane Although I could not see the wings I just somehow knew it was one There was a tiny half moon windshield an instrument panel with some gauges and a joystick in front of me I could feel the wind on my face icy cold in my bones vibrations and movements of the aircraft through the seat of my pants and a hollow feeling in the pit of my stomach A few nights later the silhouetted head and shoulders of a young man started to haunt my dreams instead Every time I dreamed of him his face became a little clearer and I eventually saw he was wearing old fashioned flying goggles and a leather cap everything was sepia colored like an old fashioned photograph or daguerreotype plate Silent at first eventually he said a trifle forlornly but not bitterly Please ask them not to forget us What we fought and died for was it for nothing

Identity Mediations in Latin American Cinema and Beyond Cecilia Nuria Gil Mariño, Laura Miranda, 2019-09-12 The appearance of sound film boosted entertainment circuits around the world drawing cultural cartographies that forged images of spaces nations and regions By the late 1920s and early 30s film played a key role in the configuration of national and regional cultural identities in incipient mass markets Over the course of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries this transmedia logic not only went unthreatened but also intensified with the arrival of new media and the development of new technologies In this respect this book strikes a dialogue between analyses that reflect the flows and transits of music films and artists mainly in the Ibero American space although it also features essays on Soviet and Asian cinema with a view to exploring the processes of configuration of cultural identities As such this work views national borders as flexible spaces that permit an exploration of the appearance of transversal relations that are part of broader networks of circulation as well as economic social and political models beyond the domestic sphere

The Infantry Adventures of Sgt William G. Altenhofen Sgt William G. Altenhofen,2014 When I was assigned an infantry MOS in spite of having a profile I first thought about what the Psychiatrist had told me He said I lost my temper very fast and it was uncontrollable My first reaction was to get very angry my mind seemed to blow up I wanted to scream at him that he was wrong Than I realized that was just what he had just told me So I always worried that I would get into a situation where I would need all my facilities about me and I would loose it and cause one or more people to get injured because I was not thinking properly I found it easy to operate in the infantry The operating manuals were written so they were easy to understand I passed all the schools I had to attend and I was considered very efficient However I was not the loud screaming bully that was typical of the Infantry Sergeant I was often critized because I did not scream at the troops I found that if you talked to them using good english I got more done So I did not use curse words or degrade people in any manner I learned when I went to my first Infantry unit that if I told them I had a profile and that I could type I would be put in a dead end job that earned no rewards so I would just be marking time I could not operate that way As soon as I could I got rid of the profile I got a few breaks and considered myself very lucky to accomplish as much as I did in the Army I wrote mostly about myself but I did include bits about people who I considered outstanding good or bad I hope you enjoy reading this as much as I enjoyed living it SFC Ret William G Altenhofen
