The World of Child Labor Hugh D Hindman, Hugh Hindman, 2014-12-18 The World of Child Labor details both the current and historical state of child labor in each region of the world focusing on its causes consequences and cures Child labor remains a problem of immense social and economic proportions throughout the developing world and there is a global movement underway to do away with it Volume editor Hugh D Hindman has assembled an international team of leading child labor scholars researchers policy makers and activists to provide a comprehensive reference with over 220 essays This volume first provides a current global snapshot with overview essays on the dimensions of the problem and those institutions and organizations combating child labor Thereafter the organization of the work is regional covering developed developing and less developed regions of the world The reference goes around the globe to document the contemporary and historical state of child labor within each major region Africa Latin and South America North America Europe Middle East Asia and Oceania including country level accounts for nearly half of the world s nations Country level essays for more developed nations include historical material in addition to current issues in child labor All country level essays address specific facets of child labor problems such as industries and occupations in which children commonly work the national child welfare policy occupational safety regulations educational system and laws and often highlight significant initiatives against child labor Current statistical data accompany most country level essays that include ratifications to UN and ILO conventions the Human Development Index human capital indicators economic indicators and national child labor surveys conducted by the Statistical Information and Monitoring Program on Child Labor The World of Child Labor is designed to be a self contained comprehensive reference for high school college and professional researchers Maps photos figures tables references and index are included Study on the Legal Protection of Child Domestic Workers in the Asia-Pacific : ILO/Japan/Korea Asian Meeting on Action to Combat Child Domestic Labour, Chiang Mai, Thailand, 2-4 October 2002 Amparita S. Sta. Maria, 2003

Child Slavery Now Gary Craig, 2010 Around 210 million children are still in slavery today This groundbreaking book shows why they remain locked in slavery the ways in which they are exploited and how they can be emancipated It also reminds us that all consumers are implicated in modern childhood slavery Women, Work and Care in the Asia-Pacific Marian Baird, Michele Ford, Elizabeth Hill, 2017-01-20 This book provides a comparative analysis of the social economic industrial and migration dynamics that structure women s paid work and unpaid care work experience in the Asia Pacific region Each country focused chapter examines the formal and informal ways in which work and care are managed the changing institutional landscape gender relations and fertility concerns employer and trade union responses and the challenges policy makers face and the consequences of their decisions for working women By covering the entire region including Australia and New Zealand the book highlights the way different national work and care regimes are linked through migration with wealthier countries looking to their poorer neighbours for alternative sources of labour In addition the book contributes to debates about the barriers to women's participation in the workforce the valuation of unpaid care the gender wage gap social protection and labour regulation for migrant workers and gender relations in developing Asia

Child Domestic Workers Maggie Black, 2005 Targeted at small and medium sized NGOs provides practical information gathered from local practitioners in Africa Asia Latin America and the Caribbean and from international organisations and networks Considers the very large group of child workers whose situation is potentially a worst form of child labour resembling slavery Gives advice on how to reach these children and deal with rescue rehabilitation and reintegration how to assess their needs and how to deal with institution and capacity building      Working to Be Someone Beatrice

Hungerland, Manfred Liebel, Anne Wihstutz, Brian Milne, 2007-02-15 This book presents an overview of worldwide research on working children that considers children's own views of employment in favour of adult constructed arguments about child work This is a key text for social work practitioners that encourages re-evaluation of the notion of childhood and understands the complex phenomenon of working children      Pinay on the Prairies Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, 2013-11-15 For many

Filipinos one word kumusta how are you is all it takes to forge a connection with a stranger anywhere in the world In Canada's Prairie provinces this connection has inspired community building and created both national and transnational identities for the women who identify as Pinay This book is the first to look beyond traditional metropolitan hubs of settlement to explore the migration of Filipino women in Alberta Manitoba and Saskatchewan Based on interviews with first generation immigrant Filipino women and temporary foreign workers this book explores how the shared experience of migration forms the basis for new identities communities transnational ties and multiple levels of belonging in Canada A groundbreaking look at the experience of Filipino women in Canada Bonifacio's work is simultaneously an investigation of feminism migration diaspora and the rubric of multiculturalism in a global era      Global Domestic Workers Sabrina Marchetti, Daniela Cherubini, Giulia

Garofalo Geymonat, 2021-09-13 EPDF and EPUB available Open Access under CC BY NC licence Drawing from the EU funded DomeQUAL research project across 9 countries in Europe South America and Asia this comparative study explores the conditions of domestic workers around the world and the campaigns they are conducting to improve their labour rights The book showcases how domestic workers movements put intersectionality in action in representing the interest of various marginalized social groups from migrants and low income groups to racialized and rural girls and women Casting light on issues such as subjectification and collective organizing on the part of a category of workers conventionally regarded as unorganizable this ambitious volume will be invaluable for scholars policy makers and activists alike      Application of

International Labour Standards 2008 (I) International Labour Conference, International Labour Office, 2008      Helping

Hands Or Shackled Lives?, 2004      Contemporary Slavery Annie Bunting, Joel Quirk, 2018-05-15 This book looks at recent efforts to combat contemporary slavery worldwide and explores how the history and iconography of slavery has been invoked to support a series of government interventions activist projects legal instruments and rhetorical performances      Child Trafficking in the Philippines ,2007 The study sought to a review current literature on child trafficking in the country b construct a model that could be used to determine the probability of an area being the source of trafficked children c determine the actual situation in selected areas and d assess the existing institutional arrangements that have been set up to combat child trafficking vis a vis international and national commitments Report of the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (articles 19, 22 and 35 of the Constitution) International Labour Conference,International Labour Office. Protecting the Rights of Women Migrant Domestic Workers Sophie Henderson,2022-02-09 Migrant women across Asia disproportionately work in precarious insecure and informal employment sectors that are subject to few regulations pay low wages and expose women to harm of which domestic work is among the most prevalent This book uses the cases of the Philippines and Sri Lanka to develop a comprehensive intersectional rights based approach to better protect women migrant domestic workers against exploitation As accounts of exploitation gender based violence torture and death among migrant domestic workers increase the recognition and defence of their human and labour rights is an urgent necessity The Philippines and Sri Lanka are two of the leading labour sending states of women domestic workers in Asia and their economies have become increasingly dependent on the remittances they send back home Drawing on extensive original research this book argues that these two sending states are guilty of structural violence by sustaining a network of institutions policies and practices which serve to systematically disadvantage and discriminate against women migrant domestic workers The research covers the entire migration process from pre departure through to overseas employment followed by return and reintegration This book s innovative application of structural violence theory as a way to investigate the role of state institutions in labour sending countries in the Global South will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of migration studies gender studies human rights law and Asian Studies Campaigning for Justice Jo

Becker,2012-12-19 A study of strategies implemented in local regional and international human rights campaigns elucidating how advocates were able to achieve their goals Advocates within the human rights movement have had remarkable success establishing new international laws securing concrete changes in human rights policies and practices and transforming the terms of public debate Yet too often the strategies these advocates have employed are not broadly shared or known Campaigning for Justice addresses this gap to explain the how of the human rights movement Written from a practitioner s perspective this book explores the strategies behind some of the most innovative human rights campaigns of recent years Drawing on interviews with dozens of experienced human rights advocates the book delves into local regional and international efforts to discover how advocates were able to address seemingly intractable abuses and secure concrete advances in human rights These accounts provide a window into the way that human rights advocates conduct their work their real life struggles and challenges the rich diversity of tools and strategies they employ and ultimately their courage and persistence in advancing human rights Praise for Campaigning for Justice This book is a gold mine A terrific resource not only for those just entering human rights work but also for those with years of experience Jody Williams Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Co founder International Campaign to Ban Landmines A singular contribution that will be indispensable for those interested in advocacy and human rights Elazar Barkan Director Institute for the Study of Human Rights Columbia University Addressing the critical question of how human rights organizations actually do their work this book has a currency that is needed right now Barbara Frey Director Human Rights Program University of Minnesota A vivid testament to the lives of human rights activists including Becker s own as advocates and courageous fighters for the rights of others Radhika Coomaraswamy Former Special representative to the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict United Nations

Child labour: a textbook for university students, 2004      Occupational Therapy in the Philippines Michael Sy, Roi Charles Pineda, Caroline Fischl, 2025-03-14 The first book of its kind Occupational Therapy in the Philippines provides a context to the existing occupational therapy knowledge base from a Filipino perspective This book acts as a guide for occupational therapists to develop and continually evaluate trusting working relationships with clients and other health and social care professionals leading to more effective occupational therapy services It discusses occupational therapy concepts principles and practices and illustrates examples of occupational therapy practices based on Filipino case studies narratives and evidence and offers recommendations on how to enrich occupational therapy understanding globally The chapters delve into theory education and training clinical practice research case studies and topical issues This book is an ideal read for occupational therapy students and practitioners from all areas of practice as well as to those who are interested to know more about occupational therapy      Child Labor and Sweatshops Ann Manheimer, 2006 Abuses of child and adult workers have led to protests boycotts and treaties to end child labor and sweatshops Everyone agrees the worst practices must be stopped But debate rages over the underlying causes and whether workplace exploitation is an inevitable step in economic development or an avoidable human rights violation      The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide

Irving Epstein, 2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children s Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century
