The Health of Slaves on Southern Plantations, by William Dosite Postell William Dosite Postell,1951 The Health of Slaves on Southern Plantations William Dosité Postell,1951 Elderly Slaves of the Plantation South Stacey K. Close,2015-12-22 Elderly slaves contributed substantially to the creation and perpetuation of the unique African American culture and antebellum plantation society in the South Interwoven with this major argument are two subthemes One centers on the fact that by the late antebellum period elderly slaves were some of the chief transmitters of Africanism the other focuses on how gender based distinctions of the elderly became blurred Although the roles of the elderly often changed elderly slaves contributed to the plantation economy It is also true that those old people who were incapacitated posed serious economic and social concerns for owners although many of the problems of elderly care were solved by the compassion of slave community members Ph D Dissertation The Ohio State University 1992 revised with new preface and index Ar'n't I a Woman?: Female Slaves in the Plantation South (Revised Edition) Deborah Gray White,1999-02-17 One of those rare books that quickly became the standard work in its field Anne Firor Scott Duke University Living with the dual burdens of racism and sexism slave women in the plantation South assumed roles within the family and community that contrasted sharply with traditional female roles in the larger American society This revised edition of Ar n t I a Woman reviews and updates the scholarship on slave women and the slave family exploring new ways of understanding the intersection of race and gender and comparing the myths that stereotyped female slaves with the realities of their lives Above all this groundbreaking study shows us how black women experienced freedom in the Reconstruction South their heroic struggle to gain their rights hold their families together resist economic and sexual oppression and maintain their sense of womanhood against all odds Winner of the Letitia Woods Brown Memorial Book Prize awarded by the Association of Black Women Historians Disease and Distinctiveness in the American South Todd L. Savitt,James Harvey Young,1991 This book looks at disease entities yellow fever hookworm pellagra especially associated with the American South and wrestles with the relation of diseases to an issue of perennial concern to southern historians that of southern distinctiveness Slavery and Plantation Growth in Antebellum Florida 1821-1860 Julia Floyd Smith,2018-02-26 The books in the Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series demonstrate the University Press of Florida s long history of publishing Latin American and Caribbean studies titles that connect in and through Florida highlighting the connections between the Sunshine State and its neighboring islands Books in this series show how early explorers found and settled Florida and the Caribbean They tell the tales of early pioneers both foreign and domestic They examine topics critical to the area such as travel migration economic opportunity and tourism They look at the growth of Florida and the Caribbean and the attendant pressures on the environment culture urban development and the movement of peoples both forced and voluntary The Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series gathers the rich data available in these architectural archaeological cultural and historical works as well as the travelogues and naturalists sketches of the area in prior to the twentieth century making it accessible for scholars and the general public alike The Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series is made possible through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation under the Humanities Open Books program

Working Cures Sharla M. Fett, 2002 Working Cures explores black health under slavery showing how herbalism conjuring midwifery and other African American healing practices became arts of resistance in the antebellum South and invoked conflicts

The Nature of Resistance in South Carolina's Works Progress Administration Ex-Slave Narratives Gerald J. Pierson, 2002 The Federal Writers Project part of President Franklin D Roosevelt's Works Progress Administration of the 1930s collected interviews from over 3500 ex slaves throughout the United States including 365 former South Carolina slaves These narratives are an invaluable resource to those interested in resistance by the last generation of South Carolinians held in bondage This thesis tells us about the separate worlds inhabited by the Palmetto State's slaves and their owners and describes often in the slaves own words the resistance precipitated by the friction between these worlds

The Plantation Edgar Tristram Thompson, 1957

African American Southerners in Slavery, Civil War and Reconstruction Claude H. Nolen, 2005-08-29 This work documents the many roles filled by Southern blacks in the last decades of slavery the Civil War years and the following period of Reconstruction African Americans suffered and resisted bondage in virtually every aspect of their lives but persevered through centuries of brutality to their present place at the center of American life Utilizing statements made by former slaves and other sources close to them the author takes a close look at the culture and lifestyle of this proud people in the final decades of slavery their experiences of being in the military and fighting in the Civil War and the active role taken by the Southern blacks during Reconstruction

African American Slavery and Disability Dea H. Boster, 2013 Disability is often mentioned in discussions of slave health mistreatment and abuse but constructs of how able and disabled bodies influenced the institution of slavery has gone largely overlooked This volume uncovers a history of disability in African American slavery from the primary record analyzing how concepts of race disability and power converged in the United States in the first half of the nineteenth century Slaves with physical and mental impairments often faced unique limitations and conditions in their diagnosis treatment and evaluation as property Slaves with disabilities proved a significant challenge to white authority figures torn between the desire to categorize them as different or defective and the practical need to incorporate their disorderly bodies into daily life Being physically unfit could sometimes allow slaves to escape the limitations of bondage and oppression and establish a measure of self control Furthermore ideas about and reactions to disability appearing as social construction legal definition medical phenomenon metaphor or masquerade highlighted deep struggles over bodies in bondage in antebellum America The Civilization of the Old South Clement Eaton, 2021-12-14 Exhibiting a clear straightforward style his many works are marked by a comprehensiveness and a catholicity of view There is hardly an element of southern thought or society hardly a major movement of any kind or an event of any significance that has escaped his penetrating thought and discerning analysis This volume of Eaton's selected writings forms a rich and provocative mosaic of southern life from the years of Thomas Jefferson to the close of the Civil War These selections perceptively edited by Albert D Kinvan show the wide range of Eaton's interests including the impact of slavery the influence of religion and the art of politics and they demonstrate the depth of his insight into the civilization of the Old South Slavery and Medicine Katherine Bankole, 2019-07-30 This study re evaluates the field known as Negro Slave Medicine which has traditionally focused on the efforts of slaveowners to provide medical care for their slaves addressing the slaves proactive management of medical care brutality as a cause of the constant need for medical attention and the health risks posed by arduous agricultural labor This groundbreaking study offers insight into the health problems facing enslaved people their attempts to deal with the causes and effects of illness and injury and the slave owners attitudes toward the medical treatment of slaves The appendices present valuable data on the medical treatment of enslaved African Americans from the Touro Infirmary Archives that have never before been published Irrigation Civilizations , 1955 Nursing History Review, Volume 12, 2004 Patricia D'Antonio, RN, PhD, FAAN, 2003-10-31 Nursing History Review an annual peer reviewed publication of the American Association for the History of Nursing is a showcase for the most significant current research on nursing history Regular sections include scholarly articles over a dozen book reviews of the best publications on nursing and health care history that have appeared in the past year and a section abstracting new doctoral dissertations on nursing history Historians researchers and individuals fascinated with the rich field of nursing will find this an important resource Highlights from Volume 12 Nursing in Nationalist China John Watt Coronary Care Nursing Circa 1960s Arlene Keeling A Memorial to Barbara Bates 1928 2002 Regulation of African American Midwifery Zeina Omisola Jones Slavery and Slaving in World History: A Bibliography, 1900-91: v. 1 David Y Miller, 2019-07-23 This bibliography of 20th century literature focuses on slavery and slave trading from ancient times through the 19th century It contains over 10 000 entries with the principal sections organizing works by the political geographical frameworks of the enslavers Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS's important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana's architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state's architecture An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State Anyone interested in the state's architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings indispensable
