Captives and Companions Justin Marozzi, 2025-10-21 The definitive history of the slave trade in the Islamic world a story that has been overshadowed by its notorious but shorter lived Atlantic counterpart Slavery in the Islamic world has a long complex and controversial history In the earliest days of Islam Arab Muslims enslaved men women and children as the spoils of war In the following centuries young boys were imported to imperial Islamic courts in enormous numbers Some were castrated to serve as eunuch guardians of sacred spaces from the imperial harem of Istanbul to the Prophet s Mosque in Medina Others were harvested by the Ottomans to serve as Janissaries the sultan s elite infantry unit Some even rose to the highest levels of political and military command making a mockery of their slave status For women leading concubines became powerful figures in their own right In the ninth century Golden Age of Baghdad the most beautiful and accomplished courtesans were among the richest most celebrated figures of their day In the twentieth century more than a thousand years later their cosmopolitan counterparts were still entertaining Ottoman sultans Yet it was Africa which bore the brunt of the Islamic world s insatiable demand for slave labour Slavers plied its Mediterranean Atlantic and Indian Ocean coasts traders raided inland for human cargo and millions of enslaved Africans trudged across the Sahara into captivity Meanwhile North African corsairs turned the Mediterranean into a slaving free for all between Muslims Christians and Jews The sheer longevity of slavery was no less surprising Arab Muslims adapted and regulated this practice within an Islamic context Sanctioned by the Prophet Mohammed legitimated by the Quran and holy law slavery endured for fifteen centuries Abolition had few champions and came late in the day hereditary slavery continues even today in Mali and Mauritania
