Angkor Wat - A Transcultural History of Heritage Michael Falser, 2019-12-16 This book unravels the formation of the modern concept of cultural heritage by charting its colonial postcolonial nationalist and global trajectories By bringing to light many unresearched dimensions of the twelfth century Cambodian temple of Angkor Wat during its modern history the study argues for a conceptual connected history that unfolded within the transcultural interstices of European and Asian projects With more than 1 400 black and white and colour illustrations of historic photographs architectural plans and samples of public media the monograph discusses the multiple lives of Angkor Wat over a 150 year long period from the 1860s to the 2010s Volume 1 Angkor in France reconceptualises the Orientalist French colonial discovery of the temple in the nineteenth century and brings to light the manifold strategies at play in its physical representations as plaster cast substitutes in museums and as hybrid pavilions in universal and colonial exhibitions in Marseille and Paris from 1867 to 1937 Volume 2 Angkor in Cambodia covers for the first time in this depth the various on site restoration efforts inside the Archaeological Park of Angkor from 1907 until 1970 and the temple s gradual canonisation as a symbol of national identity during Cambodia s troublesome decolonisation 1953 89 from independence to Khmer Rouge terror and Vietnamese occupation and finally as a global icon of UNESCO World Heritage since 1992 until today Congratulations to our author Michael Falser who received the prestigious 2021 ICAS Book Prize in the Ground Breaking Subject Matter category

The Heritage of Soviet Oriental Studies Michael Kemper, Stephan Conermann, 2011-02-01 This book examines the Russian Soviet intellectual tradition of Oriental and Islamic studies which comprised a rich body of knowledge especially on Central Asia and the Caucasus The Soviet Oriental tradition was deeply linked to politics probably even more than other European Orientalisms It breaks new ground by providing Western and post Soviet insider views especially on the features that set Soviet Oriental studies apart from what we know about its Western counterparts for example the involvement of scholars in state supported anti Islamic agitation the early and strong integration of Orientals into the scientific institutions the spread of Oriental scholarship over the Oriental republics of the USSR and its role in the Marxist reinterpretation of the histories of these areas The authors demonstrate the declared emancipating agenda of Soviet scholarship with its rhetoric of anti colonialism and anti imperialism made Oriental studies a formidable tool for Soviet foreign policy towards the Muslim World and just like in the West the Iranian Revolution and the mujahidin resistance to the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan necessitated a thorough redefinition of Soviet Islamic studies in the early 1980s Overall the book provides a comprehensive analysis of Soviet Oriental studies exploring different aspects of writing on Islam and Muslim history societies and literatures It also shows how the legacy of Soviet Oriental studies is still alive especially in terms of interpretative frameworks and methodology after 1991 Soviet views on Islam have contributed significantly to nation building in the various post Soviet and Russian Muslim republics

The Heritage Turn in China Carol Ludwig, Linda Walton, Yi-Wen Wang, 2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China The Reinvention Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected re invented disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism entertainment educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning
