The Hero In Igbo Life And Literature:

The Hero in Igbo Life and Literature Donatus Ibe Nwoga, Chukwuma Azuonye, 2002 The Igbo people today find themselves in a transitional context The papers presented in this book are the outcome of a seminar on the problems of identifying and defining the hero in Igbo life and literature both traditional and modern The contributors leading Igbo scholars in the humanities and literature review the Igbo tradition and issues crucial to the understanding of the Igbo psyche and survival as a people in a modern and multinational environment They address whether heroes are the kind experienced in the past or whether they are copied from their colonial masters They attempt to identify whether there is any relevance or value in traditional concepts of heroism for modern Igbo society

Essays on Language, Communication and Literature in Africa Joyce T. Mathangwane, Akin Odebunmi, 2016-02-08 Essays on Language Communication and Literature in Africa explores language choice questions together with domain driven lingua communicative and literary resources situated within the discourses of law culture medicine visual art politics the media music and literature in Africa It identifies the distinctive African paraphernalia of these discourses and foregrounds their real world and mediated cultural and societal values and highlights the Western presence through the inclusion of aspects of Shakespearean perspectives which bear universal tidings and speak to the African gender tradition The chapters attention to verbal and visual artistic communicative mechanisms underlines such engagements as multilingualism policies socio political declension social dynamism and cultural interventions that characterise the African setting These realities are discussed in impressive detail authoritative scholastic depth and effective stylistic tones that reflect the authors familiarity with the facets of African societies deducible from language communication and literature

The Forger's Tale Stephanie Newell, 2006-11-01 Between 1905 and 1939 a conspicuously tall white man with a shock of red hair dressed in a silk shirt and white linen trousers could be seen on the streets of Onitsha in Eastern Nigeria How was it possible for an unconventional boy loving Englishman to gain a social status among the local populace enjoyed by few other Europeans in colonial West Africa In The Forger's Tale The Search for Odeziaku Stephanie Newell charts the story of the English novelist and poet John Moray Stuart Young 1881 1939 as he traveled from the slums of Manchester to West Africa in order to escape the homophobic prejudices of late Victorian society Leaving behind a criminal record for forgery and embezzlement and his notoriety as a spirit rapper Stuart Young found a new identity as a wealthy palm oil trader and a celebrated author known to Nigerians as Odeziaku In this fascinating biographical account Newell draws on queer theory African gender debates and new imperial history to open up a wider study of imperialism homo sexuality and nonelite culture between the 1880s and the late 1930s The Forger's Tale pays close attention to different forms of West African cultural production in the colonial period and to public debates about sexuality and ethics as well as to movements in mainstream English literature
