The Iranian Mujahedin:

The Iranian Mojahedin Ervand Abrahamian, 1989-01-01 A first rate study that not only goes far in explaining the key events of the last decade but also implicitly substantiates the classic Crane Brinton analysis Bernard Weiss History Review of New Books

No Conquest, No Defeat Ariane M. Tabatabai, 2020-12-15 In early 2019 the Islamic Republic of Iran marked its fortieth anniversary despite decades of isolation political pressure sanctions and war Observers of its security policies continue to try and make sense of this unlikely endurance Some view the regime as a purely rational actor whose national security decisions and military affairs are shaped by the same considerations as in other states Others believe that it is ideology driving Tehran's strategy Either way virtually everyone agrees that the mullahs policies are fundamentally different from those pursued by their monarchical predecessors No Conquest No Defeat offers a historically grounded overview of Iranian national security Tabatabai argues that the Islamic Republic is neither completely rational nor purely ideological Rather its national security policy today is largely shaped by its strategic culture a product of the country's historical experiences of war and peace As a result Iranian strategic thinking is perhaps best characterized by its dynamic yet resilient nature one that is continually evolving As the Islamic Republic enters its fifth decade this book sheds new light on Iran's controversial nuclear and missile programs and its involvement in Afghanistan Iraq Lebanon Syria and Yemen

Iran Today Manochehr Dorraj, Mehran Kamrava, 2008-10-30 Iran dominates the media headlines once again and has taken center stage in the U S and European Union strategy toward the Middle East A more nuanced understanding of Iranian society has assumed even greater significance and urgency Iran Today An Encyclopedia of Life in the Islamic Republic offers crucial insight for students and the general reader into an often misunderstood and complex country that is shrouded in mystery and misperception Heir to a long history and a great culture and civilization Iran embodies a rich complex and diverse mosaic that defines its national identity Diversity is also the operative word that describes Iranian landscapes and geography its multiple ethnic groups and their varied cultures and traditions as well as the uneven and vastly different levels of economic and industrial development conflicting political tendencies and different and often contradictory social and cultural outlooks Because of its tumultuous recent political history Iran appears to encapsulate all of these internal differences and stark contrasts somewhat more distinctly than most of its neighbors The 1978 1979 revolution transformed the society and culture in fundamental ways and redefined social life It created new institutions of governance and Islamicized the culture education and the legal system in an attempt to create a new society that would usher in the reign of piety and virtue Yet Islamization had to come to terms with pre Islamic and illustrious Persian history and culture as well as the realities of an interdependent postmodern globalized world in which as a developing country Iran resides in the periphery Within this framework the dynamics and complexity of social life in the Islamic Republic unfold This encyclopedia is the source for up to date authoritative information on a full range of critical topics of interest Coverage of the Islamic Republic here falls into the general categories of history politics economics society and culture The most significant aspects of the life in Iran since the revolution the era of the Islamic Republic so far are stressed The wide range of entries shows the richness and complexity of Iranian society its multiple and varied facets its expressions and outward manifestations and its nuanced responses to political repression instability war pervasive crisis and the chronic tension between modernity and tradition Some of the entries designed to highlight these important phenomena revolve around the country s ethnic mosaic the social role and position of women veiling the educational system sports intellectuals the arts and artistic expression literature poetry cuisine healthcare and the family Other entries range from regionalism and urban development to the petroleum industry agriculture the banking system issues of wealth and poverty class structure and economic mobility and the private sector In a number of significant areas economic social and cultural phenomena intersect These intersections are reflected in entries on broadcasting and communications technology the Internet public relations electronic and print media and family planning and healthcare A chronology selected bibliography and photos complement the entries

Iran Between Two Revolutions Ervand Abrahamian, 1982-07-21 Emphasizing the interaction between political organizations and social forces Ervand Abrahamian discusses Iranian society and politics during the period between the Constitutional Revolution of 1905 1909 and the Islamic Revolution of 1977 1979 Presented here is a study of the emergence of horizontal divisions or socio economic classes in a country with strong vertical divisions based on ethnicity religious ideology and regional particularism Professor Abrahamian focuses on the class and ethnic roots of the major radical movements in the modern era particularly the constitutional movement of the 1900s the communist Tudeh party of the 1940s the nationalist struggle of the early 1950s and the Islamic upsurge of the 1970s In this examination of the social bases of Iranian politics Professor Abrahamian draws on archives of the British Foreign Office and India Office that have only recently been opened newspaper memoirs and biographies published in Tehran between 1906 and 1980 proceedings of the Iranian Majles and Senate interviews with retired and active politicians and pamphlets books and periodicals distributed by exiled groups in Europe and North America in the period between 1953 and 1980 Professor Abrahamian explores the impact of socio economic change on the political structure especially under the reigns of Reza Shah and Muhammad Reza Shah and throws fresh light on the significance of the Tudeh party and the failure of the Shah s regime from 1953 to 1978

Religion and Nation Kathryn Spellman, 2005-12-01 An estimated 75 000 Iranians emigrated to Britain after the 1979 revolution and the establishment of the Islamic Republic They are politically religiously socio economically and ethnically heterogeneous and have found themselves in the ongoing process of settlement The aim of this book is to explore facets of this process by examining the ways in which religious traditions and practices have been maintained negotiated and rejected by Iranians from Muslim backgrounds and how they have served as identity building vehicles during the course of migration in relation to the political economic and social situation in Iran and Britain While the ethnographic focus is on Iranians this book touches on more general questions associated with the process of migration transnational societies Diasporas and religious as well as ethnic minorities

Iran under the Ayatollahs (Routledge Revivals) Dilip Hiro, 2013-09-05 First published in 1985 this is a comprehensive study of the Middle East's most strategic country set against the background of the Islamic heritage of Iran and the rise and fall of the Pahlavi dynasty Dilip Hiro describes the various phases through which the Islamic revolution has passed gives an incisive account of the first Gulf War and provides an historical survey of Iran's relations with the West the Soviet bloc and other countries of the region

Power, Islam, and Political Elite in Iran Eva Raket, 2008-11-30 The Iranian Islamic revolution brought about a political system based on a combination of state institutions that derive their legitimacy from Islamic law and republican institutions legitimized by the people As there are no legal political parties in the Islamic Republic of Iran political factions represent the varying ideological and material interests of members of the political elite and their supporters This book analyzes the rivalries between the political factions and their related state institutions and the impact of the dynamics of factionalism on domestic economic and socio cultural and foreign policy formulation It shows that tensions inherent to the structure of state institutions and factional rivalries slow down the process of democratization and economic reforms in the Islamic Republic of Iran

Islamism and Post-Islamism in Iran Yadullah Shahibzadeh, 2016-06-01 This book is a study of overlooked themes in Iran's contemporary political and intellectual history It investigates the way Iranian Muslim intellectuals have discussed politics and democracy As a history of Iranian Islamism and its transformation to post Islamism this work demonstrates that Muslim intellectuals have enriched the Iranian society epistemologically aesthetically ethically and politically This book examines the internal conflicts of the Islamist ideology as the intellectual underpinnings of the 1979 Revolution its contribution to the formation of the post revolutionary state and the post Islamist response to the democratic deficits of the post revolutionary state Seeking to overcome the shortcomings of historiographical approaches this book demonstrates the intellectual and political agency of Muslim intellectuals from the 1960s to the present

Terronomics Sean S. Costigan, David Gold, 2016-03-16 Today no single issue dominates the global political landscape as much as terrorism Aware of their unique position in the newly unipolar world terrorist leaders have articulated that economic warfare is a key component of the new terrorist agenda Governments have accentuated the role of economic tools in their counter terrorism policies while maintaining emphasis on the application of military force or hard power even though such tools often prove unnecessarily blunt or even sorely inadequate Given the complexity of the global threat posed by modern transnational terrorist groups combating terrorism with a mix of hard and soft power is more important than ever As an invaluable new book in terrorism studies Terronomics brings together contributions from renowned international scholars and practitioners to provide a multifaceted view of contemporary financial counterterrorism and terrorist funding efforts It employs key concepts terms case studies and policy recommendations to advance our understanding of the threats and possible courses of action thus enabling us to grasp the critical financial and economic issues while providing potential counterterrorist strategies

Falling Terrorism and Rising Conflicts Hooman Peimani, 2003-09-30 The Taliban s fall and the massive American military and political presence in South and West Asia have created grounds for a polarization into two camps India Iran and Russia to which China is affiliated and the United States and Pakistan In Peimani s analysis their incompatible interests will push them towards confrontations with regional and international implications Contrary to expectations the fall of the Taliban did not bring peace and stability to Afghanistan The Afghan interim government is simply too weak to act as a central government this results in the re emergence of warlords turf wars and the expansion of drug trafficking This unstable situation may well result in the emergence of Taliban like groups Added to this the threat of the spillover of instability from Afghanistan into neighboring regions on the one hand and the rapid expansion of American military and political power in Central Asia the Caucasus the Persian Gulf Afghanistan and Pakistan on the other have created fear among the regional powers The stated indefinite stay of American forces well after the end of the anti terrorist war in Afghanistan has worsened that fear as it reflected the American government s plan to pursue certain strategic interests unrelated to that war Consequently as Peimani shows the regional anti terrorist coalition has disintegrated in the absence of a common objective to help focus the region Fear of the long term American objectives and those of its Pakistani ally in South and West Asia incompatible with those of the regional powers have facilitated the creation of two camps consisting of Iran India and Russia to which China is affiliated and Pakistan and the United States Respectively these implicit and explicit camps are likely to collide over their regional interests especially in the strategically important energy producing Persian Gulf and Caspian Sea regions
