A Night at the Opera Sir Denis Forman,2011-10-05 Delightful and anti reverential Sunday Times London With an encyclopedic knowledge of opera and a delightful dash of irreverence Sir Denis Forman throws open the world of opera its structure composers conductors and artists in this hugely informative guide A Night at the Opera dissects the eighty three most popular operas recorded on compact disc from Cilea s Adriana Lecouvreur to Mozart s Die Zauberfl te For each opera Sir Denis details the plot and cast of characters awarding stars to parts that are worth looking out for really good or occasionally stunning He goes on to tell the history of each opera and its early reception Finally each work is graded from alpha to gamma although the Ring cycle gets an X and Sir Denis has no qualms about voicing his opinion the first act of Fidelio is a bit of a mess while the last scene of Don Giovanni towers above the comic finales of Figaro and Cos and whether or not it is Mozart s greatest opera it is certainly his most powerful finale The guide also presents brief biographies of the great composers conductors and singers A glossary of musical terms is included as well as Operatica or the essential elements of opera from the proper place and style of the audience s applause and boos to the use of subtitles A Night at the Opera is for connoisseurs and neophytes alike It will entertain and inform delight and perhaps infuriate providing a subject for lively debate and ready reference for years to come

Classical Music In America Joseph Horowitz, 2005-03-15 Classical Music in America is a pioneering history by an award winning scholar and leading authority on American symphonic culture Joseph Horowitz argues that classical music in the United States is peculiarly performance driven and he traces a musical trajectory rising to its peak at the close of the nineteenth century and receding after World War I He defines the decades of ascendancy as the quest for an American compositional voice painting vivid vignettes of America's most celebrated performers and such pathbreaking institutions as the New York Philharmonic and the Metropolitan Opera He explores a century of decline characterized by illustrious orchestras conductors and virtuosos mostly foreign born and in a final chapter he exposes a crisis of leadership and suggests new musical directions in our postmodern age As with his acclaimed cultural histories Horowitz here fashions a sweeping narrative backed with personality and incident textured by literature sociology and intellectual history that freshly illuminates the American experience 32 pages of illustrations

Folk Songs of the Catskills Norman Cazden, Herbert Haufrecht, Norman Studer, 1983-06-30 Part of the ancient Appalachians and just a few miles up the road from a massive metropolitan area the Catskills have been home to the variety of people who have made the history of the New World The songs collected here reflect this history They are songs of rafting and lumbering war and railroads prison and hard times and nonsense and drinking And they are songs of love tragic love thwarted love foolish love and sometimes even true love Collecting the songs began in 1941 when educator Norman Studer and composer Herbert Haufrecht led a group of young people on folklore trips through the mountains The distinguished musician Norman Cazden continued the collection adding his research and scholarship The book is the cumulative work of these three colleagues Useful as an annotated archive of regional lore Folk Songs of the Catskills traces roots to early Scottish Irish Welsh English and American sources Both texts and musical structure are compared to other traditional songs Extended search for tune relatives is directed towards tracing the known use of each tune strain whether in variants with similar texts or quite different texts Some of the Catskill versions of tunes have not been found elsewhere and others are rarely encountered Whether related to others or unique to the Catskills the commentary on the songs in this collection contributes to a more general theory of the nature of traditional tunes and their transformation. The late composer, musicologist and university professor Norman Cazden worked meticulously over a period of many years to trace traditional melodies and texts. Both Cazden and fellow composer Herbert Haufrecht were music directors of Camp Woodland, a unique summer school in the Catskill Mountains which acquainted students with the folklore of this musically rich region. The late Norman Studer, one of the founders and for many years the director of Camp Woodland, was also an ardent folklorist who spent much of his life in the hills and hollows of the Catskills looking for folksingers and yarnspinnors. Together these devoted scholars have created a work that is as enjoyable as it is rare. Sounds of Music by George Odam, Joan Arnold, Alison Ley, 1996.
