Macfarlane, 2002-11-19. This book aims to solve the problem of how parts of mankind escaped from an apparently inevitable trap of war, famine, and disease in the last three hundred years. Through a detailed comparative analysis of English and Japanese history, it explores such matters as the destruction of war, decline of famine, importance of certain drinks, especially tea, the use of human excrement, and the effects of housing, clothing, and bathing on human health. It also shows how the English and Japanese controlled fertility through marriage and sexual patterns, biological and contraceptive factors, abortion, and infanticide. Breath by Breath Larry Rosenberg, 2004-11-09. A wonderfully accessible interpretation of the Buddha's teachings on breathwork in meditation from a leading insight meditation teacher, Joseph Goldstein, author of The Experience of Insight. Freedom from suffering is not only possible but the means for achieving it are immediately within our grasp, literally as close to us as our own breath. This is the 2,500-year-old good news contained in the Anapanasati Sutra, the Buddha's own teaching on cultivating both tranquility and deep insight through the full awareness of breathing. In this book, Larry Rosenberg brings this timeless meditation method to modern practitioners using the insights gained from his many years of practice and teaching. With wisdom, compassion, and humor, he shows how the practice of breath awareness is quietly, profoundly transformative and supremely practical. If you're breathing, you've already got everything you need to start.
