The Films of Michael Mann Deryck Swan,2023-04-01 Is Michael Mann an auteur Mann is a formidable filmmaking personality no doubt but the notion that today s celebrity cult of director immediately correlates with the mysterious sect of auteur is questionable and deserves to be investigated In doing so this book strives to emulate the methodology of the man himself by ranging over not only the films he has made from 1979 s The Jericho Mile to 2015 s Blackhat but also the scope of intellectual interests that they exemplify in an attempt to mine the commonalities themes and traits that may suggest the presence of an auteur Through his investigation of Mann s filmography and the personality that flows through it author Deryck Swan provides the reader with accessible and new ways of thinking about his films to date including amongst myriad other things references to painter Morris Louis desert modernism West Coast prison culture Chicago Mayor Richard M Daley Strain Theory journalist Mike Royko Chicago s Auditorium building and a largely forgotten Charles Bronson film Blood in the Moonlight Mark E. Wildermuth,2010-06-28 Director and screenwriter Michael Mann is the creative force behind such movies as Last of the Mohicans and Ali Markedly reticent Mann prefers that his personal background remain an enigma but his disparate films contain clear and consistent messages One of Mann s focuses is on the Information Age He addresses the nature of modern communication its use to manipulate and coerce and the resultant subjugation of truth The perils inherent in modern technology and communication stand in stark contrast to the power of symbolic and oral exchange the trusted medium of Mann s protagonists This critical exploration of the films of Michael Mann examines his recurring focus on the nature of modern communication and information and their effect on the individual and society Mann s films highlight the struggle to maintain a connection to reality in a world where information is a commodity manipulated and abused by forces that exert increasing control over its content and dissemination Each chapter examines one of Mann s films including Manhunter The Keep Last of the Mohicans The Insider and Ali in which the protagonist longs for a sense of human connection but is pitted against forces that devalue and destroy individuality Photographs illustrate specific moments from the films A bibliography and an index are included Michael Mann - Cinema and Television Steven Sanders,2014-07-03 This reader is the first to bring together a selection of Mann s own interviews where he reflects on his film and television productions The sixteen interviews provide historical context interpretation and evaluation of the auteur s work They encompass his entire career as a feature filmmaker and television producer director as he and others reflect on his themes working methods artistic development and career achievements The book aims to open up Mann s body of work making it available for comparison with the work of his contemporaries and to provide fresh insights into his film and television work A substantive introductory essay chronology and filmography provide additional bases for understanding the interviews essays and work of this major filmmaker

Miami Vice James Lyons,2009-12-15 Miami Vice captures the glitter and glamour embodied by Crockett and Tubbs and offers students an anatomy of a ground breaking work in the police procedural genre Explores Miami Vice s combination of disparate influences MTV film noir soap opera high concept action films as well as the social cultural and industrial moments when it burst onto the network Introduces readers to major components of televisual analysis style storytelling the television show as commodity and ideological critique that illustrate the show s unique features Provides a model for students own assessment of other shows and confirms precisely how and on what terms Miami Vice redefined the police drama and an era

Heat Nick James,2025-06-12 Robert de Niro and Al Pacino have acted opposite each other only once in Heat Michael Mann s operatic 1995 heist thriller De Niro is Neil McCauley a skilled professional thief at the centre of a tight knit criminal team Pacino is Vincent Hanna the haunted driven cop determined to hunt him down Boasting a series of meticulously orchestrated setpieces that underline Mann s sense of scale and architecture Heat also presents a rhapsody to Los Angeles as Hanna closes in on his prey For Nick James the pleasures and virtues of Heat are mixed and complex Its precise compositions and minimalist style are entangled with a particular kind of extravagant bombast And while its vision of male teamwork is richly compelling it comes close to glorifying machismo But these complexities only add to the interest of this hugely ambitious and accomplished film which confirmed Mann s place in the front rank of American film makers In his afterword to this new edition published to coincide with the film s 30th anniversary Nick James reflects upon its lasting impact and on Michael Mann s subsequent film making career

Turning Points In Television Larry Brody,2005 Television the medium we love the medium we love to hate and the medium that changed the world Larry Brody offers a unique look at this cultural phenomena how it evolved as a business as a form of entertainment how it affected us and the technological advances that have developed Brody offers a history of the industry and his own perceptions and experiences of television In the hands of Larry Brody this new addition to the Turning Points series is as entertaining and satisfying as a night of really good TV

Existentialism and Social Engagement in the Films of Michael Mann Vincent M. Gaine,2011-10-27 Michael Mann s films receive a detailed analysis as existential dramas including Heat Collateral The Last of the Mohicans and Public Enemies The book demonstrates that Mann s films perform critical engagement with existentialism illustrating the problems and opportunities of living according to this philosophy
