The Jews In Sicily 1 3831300:

The Jews in Sicily, Volume 1 (383-1300) Shlomo Simonsohn, 2022-05-09 This volume in the series Documentary History of the Jews in Italy illustrates the history of the Jews in Sicily during the last decade of the fourteenth century and the first two of the fifteenth. It is the sequel to the first and second volumes on the history of the Jews in Sicily and illustrates the events during the political upheavals which preceded the reunion of the island with Aragon. During that period the Jewish minority flourished although affected by unsettled political conditions along with the rest of the population. Over 500 documents, many of them published here for the first time, record the fortunes of the Jews and their relationships with the authorities, especially the two Martins and their Christian neighbours. Much new information has come to light and many facets of Jewish life in Sicily have been uncovered. The abundance of historical records in the archives of the Crown and of local authorities compares favourably with the relative scarcity of surviving documentation in earlier centuries. Therefore again many documents had to be reported in summary form. Much new information has come to light. The volume is again provided with additional bibliography and indexes while the introduction has been relegated to the end of the series on the Jews of the island.

The Jews in Sicily: 383-1300 Šelomō Simonsohn, 1997 This volume in the series Documentary History of the Jews in Italy illustrates the history of the Jews in Sicily from 1478 to 1489. It is the sequel to the first six volumes and covers the events during the first years of the rule of King Ferdinand II. These include the prelude to the expulsion which witnessed a further deterioration in the position of the Jews on the island. At the same time the Jewish community on the island reached its greatest expansion in population as well as economic prosperity. Some 900 documents, many of them published here for the first time, record the fortunes of the Jews and their relationship with the authorities and their Christian neighbours. Much new information has come to light and many facets of Jewish life in Sicily have been uncovered. The abundance of historical records in the archives of the Crown and of local authorities again compares favorably with the relative scarcity of surviving documentation in earlier centuries. Therefore many documents are reported in summary form. The volume is provided with additional bibliography and indexes while the introduction will appear at the end of the series on the history of the Jews of the island.

Elenchus of Biblica 1997 Robert Althann, 2001-12-31 The Most Ancient of Minorities Stanislao Pugliese, 2002-03-30 A volume of essays that examine more than 2 000 years of Italian Jewish history from ancient Rome to contemporary developments concerning assimilation, literature and the recent trial of a former SS captain implicated in crimes against humanity. The essays make clear that the Italian Jews have a unique history in Europe. A Jewish colony existed in Rome 200 years before the birth of Christ; the Eternal City therefore represents the oldest Jewish community in the Western world. Successive waves of immigrants created dozens of Jewish communities on the peninsula. Depending on the time and the place, Italian Jews could expect tolerance, discrimination, persecution or outright violence. Still, they fared better than their brethren in other parts of Europe. Because of their long history on the peninsula, the volume covers an astonishing variety of subjects from legal discrimination and historical sources to Jewish dancing masters in the Renaissance from architecture to contradictory interpretations of the Holocaust from the special section on the linguistic and moral power of Primo Levi to child rearing manuals of 17th century Livorno In addition two Holocaust survivors recount their experiences in an extraordinary section The Language of the Witness Engaging essays for scholars students and other researchers interested in Italian Studies and the roles the peninsula's Jewish population played through history Byzantines and Crusaders in Non-Greek Sources, 1025-1204 Mary Whitby, 2007-11 These essays survey the range of historical sources from the peoples who collided with the Byzantine Empire during this period of dramatic upheaval The Empire that had been expanded and consolidated by Basil II in 1025 was to disintegrate in the face of incursions from the north and Muslim east In addition pilgrims and crusaders from the west passed through the Empire and settled culminating in the capture of Constantinople by the Fourth Crusade in 1204 In order to understand the history of the region during this period one must be aware of the rich source material created by these shifting populations in a wide range of languages and with differing traditions of historical writing The fourteen essays give an overview of the material highlighting any problems the historian may have in dealing with it and provide detailed bibliographical surveys Latin Arabic Jewish Slavonic Georgian Armenian and Syriac sources are all discussed This invaluable reference work offers new approaches for all those working on the meeting of the Christian and Muslim worlds in this period Index Islamicus, 1997 Proceedings of the British Academy, 2007 American Book Publishing Record, 1998 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 The Jews in Sicily: 1302-1391 Shlomo Simonsohn, 1997 This volume narrates the history of the Jews in Sicily in the fourteenth century Some thousand documents many of them published here for the first time record the fortunes of the Jews and their relationships with the authorities and their Christian neighbours The Jews in Sicily: 1415-1439 Shlomo Simonsohn, 1997 A compilation of documents found in various libraries and archives pertaining to the history of the Jews in Sicily Each entry gives a brief description of the contents of the document in English the date and the source of the document and the original Latin text Volumes includes indexes of persons geographical names and subjects For antisemitism see the subject index under badge Jewish jurisdiction over Jews persecution and harassment of Jews taxes A significant number of documents issued by the king or members of the nobility instruct local authorities or clergymen to stop molesting or harassing the Jews See Bibliography of the Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism Annali della Scuola normale superiore di Pisa, Classe di lettere e filosofia, 1996 Beiträge zur transkulturellen Annäherung an die Literatur Siziliens Dagmar Reichardt, 2006 Published also as a supplement to issue no 6 2006 of the journal Series t p Espaces et Réseaux en Méditerranée VI Damien Coulon, 2007 International Books in Print, 1986 Mediterraneo, Mezzogiorno, Europa Giancarlo Andenna, Hubert Houben, 2004 Zeitschrift für historische Forschung, 2002 Neubürger im späten Mittelalter Rainer Christoph Schwinges, Roland Gerber, 2002 Die Autoren besch ftigen sich mit den vielf ltigen Aspekten der
