God of Love and God of Judgement

Stephen K. Moroney, 2009-07-06 How can a God of love also be a God of judgment If God loves everyone what is the point of judgment Does God change from being wrathful in the Old Testament to loving in the New Testament Can we discern God s judgments in current events such as hurricanes and personal tragedies Is it ever right for humans to judge These are not just daunting issues for theologians to ponder They are urgent questions for everyone Our answers profoundly affect how we relate to God and how we live with one another Coming to grips with these issues is vital for our spiritual journeys Many people today emphasize God s love and downplay his judgment The problem with this approach is that God s judgment is taught in Scripture from the beginning of Genesis to the end of Revelation and it is a core part of the gospel preached by Jesus and his apostles There are problems at the other end of the spectrum too when we believe in a God of judgment who is not also a God of love It is impossible for us to find spiritual peace when we live in constant dread of God pictured as a harsh judge whom we can never please This book calls us to embrace a more full biblical image of God one that joins his love and judgment together Additionally the book shows that as those who are made in God s image we can fuse love and judgment together constructively in our own daily lives To a world of smiley faced bumper stickers assuring us that God is love Stephen Moroney bravely asks What do we do with the judgment justice and wrath of God all occurring in rather impressive numbers throughout scripture His well crafted and engaging answer is that we do a disservice to God as well as to ourselves when we try to have one either a God of love or a God of judgment without the other about a subject that unfortunately touches everyone's life The End of ISIS Is Near! Craig White, Michael Bracken, Henry Layard, James Gordon, Mohamed Nanabhay, Ian Truelove, Dennis Jarvis, Heidi Wasson, 2014-11-09 There is a dam north of the city of Mosul in northern Iraq. Mosul is the home town of the terrorist group called ISIS. The Mosul dam is in danger of bursting. If the dam breaks, it will flood the city of Mosul. Bible teachers are saying that this flood would be similar to the flood of Noah. They may be missing the boat. There is another flood mentioned in the Bible. This flood is predicted to happen in exactly the same place where the city of Mosul sits today. The Prophet Nahum describes the flood that destroyed the ancient city of Nineveh. Nahum said that God will destroy that same place with a flood. Today Mosul sits in the same place as Nineveh. So the modern day city of Mosul may be flooded again. Also, if Mosul is flooded, it could be another sign of Jonah that Jesus promised to an evil generation. The flooding of Mosul could announce the arrival of God's Day of Judgment on earth. If Mosul floods, don't look to Noah. Look to Nahum and also to Jonah. In a flood, the last thing that you want to do is miss the boat. ISIS has declared itself as the head of a new Islamic Caliphate. A Caliphate is a Muslim empire ruled by one person. A Caliph is the political and religious ruler of an Islamic empire. Judging from Bible prophecy, it seems that Islam will succeed in growing its new Caliphate, but I don't think that ISIS will remain as its head. I think that ISIS's major role in end-time Bible prophecy is to slaughter its own countrymen in the Nineveh Province of northern Iraq and then to be destroyed by its neighbors. What is really going on in the world? Where is all of this headed? Will Al Qaeda take Baghdad? Is all the fighting in the Middle East related? Why is Russia creating a Union? Has Egypt seen the last of the Muslim Brotherhood? What is the Pope up to? Will the Turkey-Israeli reconciliation agreement have a seven-year term? Does God Send Natural Disasters? Troy J. Edwards, 2016-11-20 Many of our theologians have told us that God is the responsible agent for all of the natural evil that we suffer. These theologians and philosophers are not without their Biblical proof texts. For them, Sodom and Gomorrah, the flood of Noah, the plagues of Egypt, the trials of Job, the end-time events of the book of Revelation, and other historical accounts recorded in Scripture provide sufficient evidence that God is behind most, if not all, natural disasters. This book will show us that by understanding how the permissive idiom of the Ancient Eastern and Hebrew cultures was used to describe God's actions, we can get a fresh perspective of God's place in many of the natural disasters in Scripture that were attributed to Him. We will then see a loving God who is not destructive but actually does all that He can to save men from destruction without violating their freedom. Is God Incompetent? Geoffrey E. L. Bennett, 2022-07 Is God to blame for natural disasters? Does He cause volcanic action, flooding, earthquakes, plague, and genetic disease? Can He prevent them? Why doesn't He? Geoffrey E. L. Bennett uncovers deep Biblical insights linking them to twenty-first century cultural and scientific answers. Is God cruel or callous? Is He impotent or incompetent? How can I know if God even exists? Part one explores pain and shows how different cultural groups understand God to be vindictive and cruel or else limited in power or believe that suffering does not really exist. Part two examines Old Testament teaching on suffering, challenging the idea of ancient wisdom. Profound teaching is dissected from the minor and major prophets as well as the story of Job Then the New Testament fulfillment of prophecy is examined challenging perceived ideas and finishes with an interpretation of the Apocalypse The concluding solution to pain and suffering of God Part three deals with scientific theories and twenty first century concepts of the universe and the physical world together with raw nature and biogenetic problems What place does God have in our modern world Do natural disasters Acts of God show a limited or incompetent Deity
