The Great Kali Kiran Atma,2021-07-05 Goddess Kali is a Hindu deity who symbolizes the dark and contradictory elements of the universe She is one of the most unusual and popular goddesses in the Hindu pantheon Her naked appearance as well as her associations with violence blood and gore call into question the entire notion of divinity Despite this she has grown to symbolize a wide range of imagery throughout the years from murderous ogress to gentle goddess So although she is revered as Chamunda who is gruesome and monstrous she is also loved in family shrines as Dakshina Kali one of her gentler forms This work aims to examine the origins of Kali in the scriptures and lore the evolving rituals rites and customary practices of Kali worship and Her beginnings as a Tantric Goddess to Her transformation into a deity in mainstream Hindu religion

In Praise of the Goddess ,2003-12-01 About 16 centuries ago an unknown Indian author or authors gathered together the diverse threads of already ancient traditions and wove them into a verbal tapestry that today is still the central text for worshippers of the Hindu Devi the Divine Mother This spiritual classic the Devimahatmya addresses the perennial questions of the nature of the universe humankind and divinity How are they related how do we live in a world torn between good and evil and how do we find lasting satisfaction and inner peace These questions and their answers form the substance of the Devimahatmya Its narrative of a dispossessed king a merchant betrayed by the family he loves and a seer whose teaching leads beyond existential suffering sets the stage for a trilogy of myths concerning the all powerful Divine Mother Durga and the fierce battles she wages against throngs of demonic foes In these allegories her adversaries represent our all too human impulses toward power possessions and pleasure The battlefields symbolize the field of human consciousness on which our lives dramas play out in joy and sorrow in wisdom and folly The Devimahatmya speaks to us across the ages of the experiences and beliefs of our ancient ancestors We sense their enchantment at nature s bounty and their terror before its destructive fury their recognition of the good and evil in the human heart and their understanding that everything in our experience is the expression of a greater reality personified as the Divine Mother
