The Kauai Connection:

The Kauai Connection A. Keith Barton, 2002-08-13 Jack Cahill uncovers a family secret after fifty years about America's entry into World War II The CIA wants him dead to protect the President's upcoming trade agreement with Japan that threatens the economic survival of our NATO allies Jack Cahill returns to his boyhood home of Kauai to spend his retirement after a tumultuous career with Global Dynamics He is surprised to learn of a family secret that his father had worked for Japan during WW II by sharing intelligence information about American naval vessels Cahill enlists the support of his boyhood friend Nathan Kaleo to decipher records found in an old island fort that lead to a startling discovery that the elder Cahill did not act alone The CIA is determined to kill Cahill before he uncovers the truth about Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor

Jordan, 2013-09-13 Relational Cultural theory RCT proposes that all people grow through and toward relationships throughout the lifespan RCT challenges prevailing theories that depict the separate self as the hallmark of maturity Rather than movement toward autonomy and separation RCT suggests we develop ever more differentiated ways of connecting An increase in growth fostering relationships results in a sense of vitality and zest increasing clarity about ourselves and others augmented creativity and ability to take action an experience of worth and empowerment and a desire for more connectedness with others Disconnections are inevitable in relationships and RCT focuses on relational resilience the ways people can re establish positive and growth fostering relationships RCT further emphasizes the importance of cultural and societal forces in causing either growth fostering connection or destructive disconnection This volume explores the process of change in therapy and in other relationships how race and other forms of stratification create pain and how people develop resilience and strength in relationships characterized by mutuality This book was based on a special issue of Women and Therapy , Connecting the Kingdom Peter R. Mills,2022-12-31 In this groundbreaking work Peter Mills reveals a wealth of insight into the emergence of the Hawaiian nation state from sources mostly ignored by colonial and post colonial historians alike By examining how early Hawaiian chiefs appropriated Western sailing technology to help build their island nation Mills presents the fascinating history of sixty Hawaiian owned schooners brigs barks and peleleu canoes While these vessels have often been dismissed as examples of chiefly folly Mills highlights their significance in Hawai i s rapidly evolving monarchy and aptly demonstrates how the monarchy s own nineteenth century sailing fleet facilitated fundamental transformations of interisland tributary systems alliance building exchange systems and emergent forms of Indigenous capitalism Part One covers broad trends in Hawai i s changing maritime traditions beginning with the evolution of Hawaiian archaic states in the precontact era Mills argues that Indigenous trends towards political intensification under the predecessors to Kamehameha I set the stage for Kamehameha s own rapid appropriation of Western sailing vessels From the first procurement of a Western style vessel in 1790 through the beginning of the constitutional monarchy in 1840 these vessels were part of a nuanced strategy that promoted a diverse revenue base for the monarchy and developed greater international parity in Hawai i s foreign diplomacy Part Two presents the histories of the sixty vessels owned by Hawaiian chiefs between 1790 and 1840 discussing their significance origin physical attributes ownership procurement and purpose Using newspapers and other contemporaneous sources Mills uncovers little known details of more than 2 000 voyages around and between the islands and to distant parts of the Pacific His meticulous documentation of each ship s itinerary is a valuable resource for tracking the movement of chiefs and commoners between islands as they engaged in the business of building a newly interconnected Hawaiian nation Part Three connects these previously neglected maritime stories with an expanding body of historical treatments of Hawaiian agency Readers with enthusiasm for life in nineteenth century Hawai i will appreciate the entertaining and at times deeply moving glimpses into the daily lives of individuals in Hawai i s pluralistic port communities Library Media Connection ,2003 Resiliency in Action Nan Henderson,Bonnie Benard,Nancy Sharp-Light,2007 How to build bounce back kids families schools and communities is the theme of Resiliency In Action Practical Ideas for Overcoming Risks and Building Strengths in Youth Families and Communities It is edited by internationally recognized resiliency expert trainer and consultant Nan Henderson M S W whose publications are used in more than 25 countries The book is a research based practical guide for educators counselors parents community organizers and mentors and is filled with the latest strategies for helping children families schools and communities bounce back from risk stress trauma and adversity More than two dozen experts in the fields of child family organizational and community resiliency contributed to the book which challenges a widely accepted myth about people especially young people who experience risks stress trauma and adversity in their lives according to Henderson Contrary to popular opinion the majority of these individuals over time do bounce back and do well There is a growing body of scientific research from several fields that documents this fact and yields important information as to what can be done every day to facilitate this process of overcoming This book is really three books in one it contains the most recent research hands on and practical strategies and stories of resilient individuals and best practices The book includes 60 chapters grouped in seven sections The Foundations of Resiliency Resiliency and Schools Resiliency and Communities Resiliency Connections Mentoring Support and Counseling Resiliency and Youth Development Resiliency and Families and Resiliency and the Brain
