Sixteen Pleasures:

The Sixteen Pleasures Robert Hellenga, 1995-05-01 Chapter One Where I Want to Be I was twenty nine years old when the Arno flooded its banks on Friday 4 November 1966 According to the Sunday New York Times the damage wasn't extensive but by Monday it was clear that Florence was a disaster Twenty feet of water in the cloisters of Santa Croce the Cimabue crucifix ruined beyond hope of restoration panels ripped from the Baptistery doors the basement of the Biblioteca Nazionale completely underwater hundreds of thousands of volumes waterlogged the Archivio di Stato in total disarray On Tuesday I decided to go to Italy to offer my services as a humble book conservator to help in any way I could to save whatever could be saved including myself The decision wasn't a popular one at home Papa was having money troubles of his own and didn't want to pay for a ticket And my boss at the Newberry Library didn't understand either He already had his ticket paid for by the library and needed me to mind the store There wasn't any point in both of us going was there The why don't I go and you can mind the store Because because because Yes Because it just didn't make sense He couldn't see his way clear to granting me a leave of absence not even a leave of absence without pay He even suggested that the library might have to replace me in which case But I decided to go anyway I had enough money in my savings account for a ticket on Icelandic and I figured I could live on the cheap once I got there Besides I wanted to break the mold in which my life was hardening and I thought this might be a way to do it Going to Florence was better than waiting around with nothing coming up My English teacher at Kenwood High used to say that we're like onions you can peel off one layer after another and never get to a center an inner core You just run out of layers But I think I'm like a peach or an apricot or a nectarine There's a pit at the center I can crack my teeth on it or I can suck on it like a piece of candy but it won't crumble and it won't dissolve The pit is an image of myself when I was nineteen I'm in Sardegna and I'm standing high up on a large rock a cliff actually and I don't have any clothes on and everyone is looking at me telling me to come down not to jump it's too high It's my second time in Italy I spent a year here with Mama when I was fifteen and then I came back by myself after finishing high school at home to do the last year of the liceo with my former classmates Now we're celebrating the end of our examinations Silvia who spent a year with us in Chicago Claudia Rossella Giulio Fabio Alessandro Names like flowers or bells And me Margot Harrington More friends are coming later Silvia's parents my host family have a summer house just outside Terranova but we're camping on the beach five kilometers down the coast The coast is safe they say though there are bandits in the centro Wow It's my birthday August first and we've had a supper of bluefish and squid that we caught with a net The squid taste like rubber bands the heavy kind that I used to chew on in grade school and that boys sometimes used to snap our bottoms with in junior high Life is sharp and snappy too full of promise like the sting of those rubber bands I've passed my examinations with distinction I'm going to Harvard in the fall well to Radcliffe I've got an Italian boyfriend named Fabio Fabbriani and I've just been skinny dipping in the stinging cold salt sea The others have put their clothes on now I can see them below me sitting around the remains of the fire in shorts and halter tops and shirts with the sleeves rolled up two turns talking glancing up nervously but I want to savor the taste thrill of my own nakedness a little longer unembarrassed in the dwindling light It s the scariest thing I ve ever done except coming to Italy in the first place Fabio sits with his back toward me while he smokes a cigarette pretending to be angry because I won t come down but when I close my eyes and will him to turn he puts his cigarette out in the sand and turns Just at that moment I jump sucking in my breath for a scream but then holding it in case I need it latter which I do I hit the Tyrrhenian Sea feet first generating little waves that will in theory soon be lapping the beaches along the entire western coast of Italy Sicily and North Africa too The Tyrrhenian Sea responds by closing over me and it s pitch not like the pool in Chicago where I learned to swim but deep and dark and dangerous and deadly The air in my lungs the scream and I saved for just such an occasion carries me up to the surface and I strike out for the cove meeting Fabio before I m halfway there wondering if like me he s naked under the water and not knowing for sure till we re walking waist deep and he takes me by the shoulders and kisses me and I can feel something bobbing against my legs like a floating cork We haven t made love yet but it s won t be long now O dio mio The waiting is so lovely He squeezes my buns and I squeeze his surprised and then we splash in to the beach and put on our clothes What I didn t know at the time was that my mother had become seriously ill Instead of spending the rest of the summer in Sardegna I had to go back to Chicago and then after that nothing happened I mean none of the things I d expected to happen happened Instead of making love with Fabio Fabbriani on the verge of the Tyrrhenian Sea I got laid on a vinyl sofa in the back room of the SNCC headquarters on Forty seventh Street Instead of going to Harvard I went to Edgar Lee Masters College where Mama had taught art history for twenty years Instead of going to graduate school I spent two years at the Institute for Paper Technology on Green Bay Avenue instead of becoming a research chemist I apprenticed myself to a book conservator in Hyde Park and then took a position in the conservation department of the Newberry Library Instead of getting married and having a daughter of my own I lived at home and looked after Mama who was dying of lung cancer A year went by two years three years four Mama died Papa lost most of his money My sister Meg got married and moved away my sister Molly went to California with her boyfriend and then to Ann Arbor The sixties were churning around me and I couldn t seem to get a footing I tried to plunge in to get wet to catch hold to find a place in one of the boats tossing and turning on the white water rapids the sit ins the rock concerts the freedom rides SNCC CORE SDS the Civil Rights Act the Great Society I spent a lot of time holding hands and singing We shall overcome I spent a lot of time buying coffee and doughnuts and rolling joints and I spent some time on my back too the only position for a woman in the Movement I d had no sleep on the plane my eyes were blurry so it was hard to read and besides the story I was reading was as depressing as the view from the window of the train flat gray poor dreary actively ugly rather than passively uninteresting And I kept thinking about Papa and his money troubles and his lawsuits and about the embroidered seventeenth century prayer books on my work table at the Newberry that needed to be disbound washed mended and re sewn before Christmas for an exhibit sponsored by the Caxton Club So I was under a certain amount of pressure I was looking for a sign the way some religious people look for signs something to let them know they re on the right track Or on the wrong track in which case they can turn back I didn t know what I was looking for but I was trying to pay attention to notice everything the faces of the two American women sitting opposite me in the compartment scribbling furiously in their notebooks the Neapolitan accent of the Italian conductor the depressing French farmhouses gray boxes of stucco or cinder block I couldn t make out which That s what I was doing paying attention when the train pulled into the station at Metz and I saw the Saint Cyr cadet on the platform bright as the Archangel Gabriel bringing the good news to the Virgin Mary I d better explain Papa did all the cooking in our family He started when Mama went to Italy one summer when I was nine it was right after the war to look at the pictures to see for herself what she d only seen in the Harvard University Prints series and on old three by four inch tinted slides that she used to project on the dining room wall and when she came back he kept on doing it My sisters and I did the dishes and Papa took care of everything else day in and day out and whether it was Italian or French or Chinese or Malaysian it was always wonderful it was always special Penne alla puttanesca an arista tied with sprigs of rosemary paper thin strips of beef marinated in hoisin sauce and Szechwan peppercorns whole fresh salmon poached in white wine and finished with a mustard sauce chicken thighs simmered in soy sauce and lime juice curries so fiery that at their first bite unwary guests would clutch their throats and cry out for water which didn t help a bit Those were our favorites the standards against which we measured other dishes but our very favorite treat of all was the dessert Papa made on our birthdays instead of cake which was supposed to look like the hats worn by cadets at Saint Cyr the French military academy We d never been to Saint Cyr of course but we would have recognized a cadet anywhere in the world if he d been wearing his hat That s why I was so startled when I looked out the window of the Luxembourg Venise Express and saw my cadet standing there on the platform the young man Papa had teased me about the Prince Charming who had never materialized He was holding a suitcase in one hand and shifting his weight back and forth from one foot to the other as if he had to go to the bathroom and his parents were talking at him so intensely that I thought for a minute he was going to miss the train And his hat I couldn t believe it was a real hat and not a frozen mousse of chocolate and egg whites and whipped cream with squiggly Italian meringues running up and down the sides for braids That hat stirred something inside me made me feel I was doing the right thing and that I ought to keep going that things would work out Just to make sure I closed my eyes and willed him into the compartment just as I had once willed Fabio Fabbriani to turn and watch me plunge feet first into the sea As I was willing him into the compartment I was willing the American women out of it not making my cadet s appearance contingent on their departure however because I was pretty sure they weren t going to budge I kept my face down in my book and waited eyes closed lightly listening to the noises in the corridor I was I suppose still operating at least subconsciously on a fairy tale model of reality I was Sleeping Beauty or Snow White waiting for some prince whose romantic kisses would awaken my full feelings liberate my story senses emancipate my drowsy and constrained imagination take me back to that last Italian summer The train was already in motion when the door of the compartment finally opened I kept my eyes closed another two seconds and then looked up at not my Prince Charming but the Neapolitan conductor an old man so frail I d had to help him hoist the American women s mammoth suitcases onto the overhead luggage rack These suitcases were to luggage what Burberrys are to rainwear lots of extra pockets and straps and mysterious zippers concealed under flaps I asked him about the Saint Cyr cadet The next compartment he said Not your type Too young You need an older man like me You re already married He shrugged putting his whole body into it arms hands shoulders head cocked stomach pulled in Better tell your friends we were speaking in Italian that the dining car will be taken off the train before we cross the border You need to reserve a seat early I nodded Unless he went on they have those valises stuffed with American food Porcamattina He glanced upward at the suitcases tapped his cheekbone with an index finger and was gone I felt for these American women some of the mixed feelings that the traveler feels for the tourist On the one hand you want to help to show off your knowledge on the other you don t want to get involved I didn t want to get involved They weren t my type These were saltwater women sailors golfers tennis players clubwomen with suntans in November large limbed confident conspicuous firm trim sleek as walruses in their worsted wool suits They reminded me of the Gold Coast women who used to show up around the edges of CORE demonstrations with their checkbooks open telling us how much they admired what we were doing and how they wished they could help more All fucked up ideologically according to our leaders at SNCC They think their shit don t stink As far as they knew I was a scruffy little Italian I hadn t spoken a word of English in their presence and I was reading an Italian novel and it was too late to undeceive them I had heard too much I knew for example that they d met the previous summer at some kind of writing workshop at Johns Hopkins University and that they d both jumped into the sack with their instructor a novelist named Philip I knew that Philip was bald but well hung like a shillelagh I knew that neither of them had done it dog fashion BP before Philip and that they were traveling second class because Philip had told them they d get more material that way for the stories they were going to write now that they were divorced Part of their agenda I gathered was to notice things to pay attention Maybe they were looking for signs too maybe not in either case they seemed to be trying to impress the details of European railroad travel onto the pages of their marbled composition books by sheer physical force Nothing escaped their notice not even the signs in French German and Italian warning passengers not to throw things out the window and not to pull the cord on the signal d alarme All the details went into their notebooks the fine of not less than 5 000 FF the prison term of not less than one year And when one noticed something the other did too the instructions on the window latch the way the armrests worked the captions on the faded views of Chartres Cathedral that hung on the walls of the compartment above the backs of the seats I was tempted to look at them myself but I didn t want to give myself away or interrupt their game I kept my nose in my book Natalia Ginzburg s Lessico familiare It was a strenuous hour and I was glad when simultaneously panting like dogs after a good run they closed their notebooks and resumed their conversation

The Sixteen Pleasures Robert Hellenga,1994-11-04 Sexuality and Gender in Early Modern Europe
James Turner,1993-08-05 An exploration of sexuality and gender in Renaissance art literature and society Aretino's Satyr Raymond B. Waddington,2004-01-01 Pietro Aretino's literary influence was felt throughout most of Europe during the sixteenth century yet English language criticism of this writer's work and persona has hitherto been sparse Raymond B Waddington's study redresses this oversight drawing together literary and visual arts criticism in its examination of Aretino's carefully cultivated scandalous persona a persona created through his writings his behaviour and through a wide variety of visual arts and crafts In the Renaissance it was believed that satire originated from satyrs The satirist Aretino promoted himself as a satyr the natural being whose sexuality guarantees its truthfulness Waddington shows how Aretino's own construction of his public identity came to eclipse the value of his writings causing him to be denigrated as a pornographer and blackmailer Arguing that Aretino's deployment of an artistic network for self promotional ends was so successful that for a period his face was possibly the most famous in Western Europe Waddington also defends Aretino describing his involvement in the larger sphere of the production and promotion of the visual arts of the period Aretino's Satyr is richly illustrated with examples of the visual media used by the writer to create his persona These include portraits by major artists and arti minori engravings portrait medals and woodcuts

Pencils Rhetorique Judith Dundas, 1993 The painting and the poetry of the Renaissance shared the same goal of imitating nature English poets of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries frequently underlined the force of ut pictura poesis the ancient analogy between poetry and painting by means of ekphrases or descriptions of works of art and through metaphors drawn from the visual arts The present study is concerned with various kinds of allusions and what they can tell us not only about Renaissance poets attitudes toward the visual arts but also about their attitudes toward their own art of representation In their poems lies a neglected source of art criticism Since in her view the language of Renaissance criticism offers our best approach to an understanding of the poetry of the period Judith Dundas begins her book with Sir Philip Sidney and ends it with John Dryden the two poet critics who most clearly enunciate the importance of the analogy between poetry and painting Between these boundaries are chapters on Shakespeare Spenser Chapman Jonson a group of seventeenth century minor poets and Milton The order of the chapters is partly chronological and partly thematic depending on the interest of particular developments in the poets allusions to the visual arts The illustrations that accompany the text are chosen to suggest the background of pictorial reality against which the Renaissance poets were writing They also show the painters response to the accomplishments of poetry that are in themselves a response to nature In including illustrations Dundas does not wish to blur the distinction between poetry and painting since it is in their very difference of medium that the arts achieve their triumphs These triumphs led to the debate known as the paragone about which art is the superior but as Dundas notes the significance of this debate is that it served as a topos for discussing the relationship of art to truth Albrecht Dürer David Titian And Venetian Painting, 1450-1590 Bruce Cole, 2018-03-05. This up to date, well illustrated and thoughtful introduction to the life and works of one of the giants of Western Painting also surveys the golden age of Venetian Painting from Giovanni Bellini to Veronese and its place in the history of Western art. Bruce Cole, Distinguished Professor of Fine Arts at Indiana University and author of numerous books on Italian Renaissance art, begins with the life and work of Giovanni Bellini, the principal founder of Venetian Renaissance painting. He continues with the paintings of Giorgione and the young Titian, whose work embodied the new Venetian style. Cole discusses and explains all of Titian's major works: portraits, religious paintings and nudes from various points of view, and shows how Venetian painting of this period differed from painting in Florence and elsewhere in Italy, and became a distinct and fully developed style of its own.
