Official History of the UK Strategic Nuclear Deterrent Matthew Jones,2017-05-12 Volume I of The Official History of the UK Strategic Nuclear Deterrent provides an authoritative and in depth examination of the British Government s strategy towards nuclear deterrent from 1945 to 1964 This volume written with full access to the UK documentary record examines the strategic nuclear policy of British governments after 1945 as they tried to build and then maintain an independent nationally controlled strategic capability while also attempting to forge a close nuclear relationship with the United States
This book will be of much interest to students of British politics nuclear proliferation and international relations

Compendium of HHS Evaluations and Relevant Other Studies ,1990 Chinese Families Man-yea Kan,Sampson Lee Blair,2021-01-25 Chinese societies have undergone a tremendous amount of social political and economic change which have been a catalyst for substantial shifts in fundamental structures within Chinese families This edited collection focuses on the continuities and changes in gender and inter generational relations of Chinese families in Greater China The Voice of Violence Joel P. Rhodes,2001-04-30 The tide of 1960s political upheaval while mistaken at the time by some as a unified assault against America carried out by revolutionaries at home and abroad was actually hundreds of locally constructed expressions of political discourse reflecting the influences of race class gender and local conditions on each unique group of practitioners This is a comparative study of how radicals at the local level staged displayed and ultimately narrated symbolic acts of performative violence against the symbols of the American system The term performative violence refers to a method of public protest whereby participants create the conditions in which their violent actions become a political text a powerful symbol with a strong historical precedent Recognizing the textuality of history this interdisciplinary examination deconstructs the performative violence within its historically specific and socially constructed contexts using four representative case histories of late 1960s and early 1970s activism These are the African American rioters in Kansas City the Black Panther Party in Detroit campus radicals at Kansas State University and activists at the University of Kansas Rather than focusing on the major clashes of the Vietnam era this book contributes to recent scholarship on the 1960s which has attempted to offer a more textured analysis of the era s activism particularly its political violence based on more local studies Catalog of Publications United States. Bureau of Labor Statistics,1970 FCS Research Report United States. Dept. of Agriculture. Economics, Statistics, and Cooperative Service,1980 Agricultural Economic Report ,1977

Research Reports United States. Commission on Population Growth and the American Future,1972 Structure of Agriculture United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture. Subcommittee on Forests, Family Farms, and Energy,1981 The Medicine of Peace Jeffrey Paul Ansloos,2017-06-27T00:00:00Z In The Medicine of Peace Jeffrey Ansloos explores the complex intersections of colonial violence the current status of Indigenous youth in Canada in regards to violence and the possibilities of critical Indigenous psychologies of nonviolence Indigenous youth are disproportionately at risk for violent victimization and incarceration within the justice system They are also marginalized and oppressed within our systems of academia mental health and social work By linking the contemporary experiences of Indigenous youth with broader contexts of intergenerational colonial violence in Canadian society and history Ansloos highlights the colonial nature of current approaches to Indigenous youth care Using a critical Indigenous discourse to critique deconstruct and de legitimize the hegemony of Western social science Ansloos advances an Indigenous peace psychology to promote the revitalization of Indigenous identity for these youth How Canadians Communicate II David Taras,Maria Bakardjieva,Frits Pannekoek,2007 The contributors to this first volume of How Canadians communicate focus on the question what does Canadian popular culture have to say about the construction and negotiation of Canadian national identity
