the parties can't afford waiting, the possibility of getting together is increased in the future. Once the court orders an immediate settlement, it's more likely to be reached. It's important to be realistic in what you're asking for. If you're asking for too much, the court will probably dismiss the case, and you'll be left with a judgment against you. The court will also consider the parties' financial situation and the complexity of the case.
