Sisters and the English Household Anne D. Wallace, 2018-09-15 Sisters and the English Household revalues unmarried adult sisters in nineteenth century English literature as positive figures of legal and economic autonomy representing productive labor in the domestic space As a crucial site of contested values the adult unmarried sister carries the discursive weight of sustained public debates about ideals of domesticity in nineteenth century England Engaging scholarly histories of the family and providing a detailed account of the 70 year Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister controversy Anne Wallace traces an alternative domesticity anchored by adult sibling relations through Dorothy Wordsworth's journals William Wordsworth's poetry Mary Lamb's essay On Needle Work and novels by Jane Austen Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens Dinah Mulock Craik and George Eliot Recognizing adult sibling relationships and the figure of the adult unmarried sibling in the household as primary and generative rather than contingent and dependent and recognizing material economy and law as fundamental sources of sibling identity Sisters and the English Household resets the conditions for literary critical discussions of sibling relations in nineteenth century England

Coordination and Washing in Love Witness Lee, 2025-03-11 How can we be useful and effective in our service to the Lord We all love the Lord but the fruit of our work may not be rich because we lack coordination with others The book of Ephesians uses two phrases many times in spirit and in love We have seen that we need to be in spirit in order to have genuine coordination but we must also see the importance of love When we are in spirit we can conduct ourselves in love However if we emphasize being in spirit but do not emphasize being in love we will not be able to be adjusted in relation to our flesh and our self Conducting ourselves in love is a limitation to our flesh and our self The ability to know whether we are in the self or in the flesh depends on whether we conduct ourselves in love In John 13 we see an indication of the Lord s love His foot washing The Gospel of John speaks of foot washing in love bearing fruit in love and oneness in love In order to bear fruit we must love one another and it is difficult to arrive at a genuine love for one another apart from spiritual foot washing Genuine oneness is in foot washing in love This is our need today The Official Catholic Directory and Clergy List ,1907
