wildlife biologist and award winning novelist xD xD Ignoring a 20 year moratorium on commercial whaling Japan sends its whaling fleet deep into the Antarctic to kill whales under the guise of scientific research xD Thrust into this volatile situation is Richard Major an unlikely hero accompanying a whale research expedition On the High Seas he must confront a terrifying adversary a ruthless fishing industrialist who would wipe out entire species to satisfy an insatiable lust for money and power From the windswept Southern Ocean to the opulence of corporate Japan the battle has many fronts xD xD Mirroring a real life tragedy looming in our own lifetime this is a haunting exploration of mankind's continual conflict with nature and the heroism of those who would risk everything to defend a future threatened forever xD xD Based on fact Donation from every

Macdonald,2011-04-12 They terrify and fascinate us They are moving closer to us as climate change deforestation and rural development diminish their habitats Once considered rare romantic creatures bears are now as common in some places as raccoons Some say we should leave them alone others argue that responsible hunting will serve both bears and humans best Weighing both sides of the argument award winning writer Jake MacDonald examines the history and behavior of the three species of bears in North America grizzlies black bears and polar bears Part memoir and part natural history In Bear Country draws on the personal experiences of MacDonald and others providing an absorbing story about the place bears occupy in our world and the place we occupy in theirs As MacDonald skillfully weaves a compelling meditation on our continent's largest predators he delivers a profound and powerful message for all to consider as bear country quickly shrinks and our
