Yates, 2003 First published by the Combat Studies Institute Press The resulting anthology begins with a general overview of urban operations from ancient times to the midpoint of the twentieth century It then details ten specific case studies of U S German and Japanese operations in cities during World War II and ends with more recent Russian attempts to subdue Chechen fighters in Grozny and the Serbian siege of Sarajevo Operations range across the spectrum from combat to humanitarian and disaster relief Each chapter contains a narrative account of a designated operation identifying and analyzing the lessons that remain relevant today The Postwar Legacy of Appeasement R. Sullivan, 2004-08-30 This book provides a comparative analysis of 30 American interventions into Third World countries An historical approach is used to place the featured cases into a more general history of American Diplomacy The author uses his assessments to prove that U S foreign policy has been driven by the goal of being the ultimate power in the global capitalist economic system The author makes his work unique by giving a critical view of America s place in the world during an anticipated time of war and raised patriotism He provides a scholarly look at U S diplomacy leading up to the era of the War on Terror Sullivan explains how over the past 50 years the U S has come to succeed Europe as ruler of the global economic system The political systems which have been promoted by the U S to preserve worldwide capitalism range from one party rule to monarchies and recurring civil war The interventions discussed have proved to be short term successes for U S policy but more often tragic for the local societies affected Sullivan draws on his 1996 release Comparing State Politics to create a number of tables that place U S involvement into geographic and hierarchic perspective The reader is ultimately provided with a provocative thesis that challenges traditional interpretations of America s role in the world This book will be an asset to any undergraduate college student taking classes in political science or history It will also appeal to a general audience
