Slow Through Eden A Novel:

Recognizing the Romantic Novel Jillian Heydt-Stevenson, Charlotte Sussman, 2010-01-01 The field of literature changed dramatically at the end of the eighteenth century as under the shadow of Romanticism the novel became the most important literary genre of its day Often neglected the novels of the Romantic era puzzle critics yet are much more concerned with the unexpected the unconventional and the uncanny than their immediate predecessors or successors and their authors include some of the most important novelists of British literary history Jane Austen Fanny Burney James Hogg Mary Shelley and Sir Walter Scott among them Featuring contributions from distinguished scholars in the field Recognizing the Romantic Novel evaluates the vibrancy and centrality of the Romantic novel showcasing the important new voices and directions in the field and showing it can hold its own in the canon of literary scholarship These essays offer us a lens through which we may recognize the Romantic novel as it has never been recognized before Times Literary Supplement

Thomas Hardy: The Novels Norman Page, 2017-03-04 This book is designed to serve as a practical guide for students and others wishing to improve their skills in the detailed analysis and discussion of Hardy's prose texts Its aim is to sharpen readers awareness of the complexity and subtlety of Hardy's art by encouraging responsiveness to such aspects as language and style imagery and symbol descriptive and dramatic method and narrative technique At the same time extracts are considered not in isolation but in relation to the overall purposes of a highly organised text While the main focus is on four of Hardy's most widely read novels the twenty four examples of close analysis cover six major themes that are relevant to all his fiction There are also numerous references to his other writings in prose and verse The second part of the book provides in succinct form essential background material including an outline of Hardy's life and career and an account of the literary historical and intellectual contexts of his fiction As well as a guide to further reading a chapter is devoted to samples of criticism illustrating a range of approaches to the chosen texts and representing the work of important critics past and present

Thomas Hardy's Novel Universe Pamela Gossin, 2017-03-02 In this the first book length study of astronomy in Hardy's writing historian of science and literary scholar Pamela Gossin brings the analytical tools of both disciplines to bear as she offers unexpected and sophisticated readings of seven novels that enrich Darwinian and feminist perspectives on his work extend formalist evaluations of his achievement as a writer and provide fresh interpretations of enigmatic passages and scenes In an elegantly crafted introduction Gossin draws together the shared critical values and methods of literary studies and the history of science to articulate a hybrid model of scholarly interpretation and analysis that promotes cross disciplinary compassion and understanding within the current contention of the science culture wars She then situates Hardy's own deeply interdisciplinary knowledge of astronomy and cosmology within both literary and scientific traditions from the ancient world through the Victorian era Gossin offers insightful new assessments of A Pair of Blue Eyes Far from the Madding Crowd The Return of the Native Two on a Tower The Woodlanders Tess of the D'Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure arguing that Hardy's personal synthesis of ancient and modern astronomy with mythopoetic and scientific cosmologies enabled him to write as a literary cosmologist for the post Darwinian world The profound new myths that comprise Hardy s novel universe can be read as a sustained set of literary thought experiments by which he critiques the possibilities limitations and dangers of living out the storylines that such imaginative cosmologies project for his time and ours The Bright Book of Life Harold Bloom,2021-12-28 America s most original and controversial literary critic writes trenchantly about forty eight masterworks spanning the Western tradition from Don Quixote to Wuthering Heights to Invisible Man in his first book devoted exclusively to narrative fiction In this valedictory volume Yale professor Harold Bloom who for more than half a century was regarded as America s most daringly original and controversial literary critic gives us his only book devoted entirely to the art of the novel With his hallmark percipience remarkable scholarship and extraordinary devotion to sublimity Bloom offers meditations on forty eight essential works spanning the Western canon from Don Quixote to Book of Numbers from Wuthering Heights to Absalom Absalom from Les Misérables to Blood Meridian from Vanity Fair to Invisible Man Here are trenchant appreciations of fiction by among many others Austen Balzac Dickens Tolstoy James Conrad Lawrence Le Guin and Sebald Whether you have already read these books plan to or simply care about the importance and power of fiction Harold Bloom is your unparalleled guide to understanding literature with new intimacy The Pace of Fiction Brian Gingrich,2021-07-15 The Pace of Fiction redefines the literary history of the novel by analyzing its most elaborate feature its pace It moves from the rise of the novel to realism and modernism It starts by tracing the evolution of two narrative units scenes shown slowly and summaries told swiftly These units emerge from the conflict of epic and drama gain shape in the commentaries of Fielding and Goethe and become dynamically opposed in nineteenth century realism In Middlemarch they rotate in regular sequence summaries move swiftly until scenes slow them down scenes play out dramatically until summaries sweep them forward their movement imitates the conflict of fate and free will Over the course of the nineteenth century however scenic impulses overtake summary storytelling The reader sees the tendency already in Austen s dialogues Hawthorne s tableaux or Balzac s battering drama and finds it in Jane Eyre s placement of summaries in private scenes When Flaubert extends scenic vividness to all of his summaries and when Henry James subordinates his summaries to scenic consciousness the extreme pressure of scene upon summary brings the opposition of realist pacing to collapse But other oppositions arise in the modernisms that follow In the alternation of stasis and kinesis of drifting thoughts and everyday actions of stories and acts of storytelling in Proust Joyce Woolf Mann Hemingway pace gathers and creates meaning in new ways The Mind's Own Place Ian Reid,2015 Two women and three men displaced in different ways by the rapid transformation of Victorian England travel separately to a small settlement on Australia s western rim With them they carry social ambitions and psychological wounds As their lives intersect in the Swan River Colony what they encounter is not quite what they expect Who will struggle who will thrive and how will each react when secrets emerge Though fictional The Mind s Own Place is partly based on the actual experiences of historical figures a pair of convicts from respectable backgrounds talented and enterprising but troubled two female immigrants free settlers not equally fortunate or resilient and the first detective in Western Australia who eventually uncovers more than he intends Like Ian Reid's previous acclaimed novels this powerful story explores intricate relationships between the shaping of character and the pressure of adversity It reveals damaged families mixed motives and the long shadows thrown by the past Librarians ebook available on ProQuest and EBSCO An impressively executed work of meticulously written fiction The Mind's Own Place clearly documents author Ian Reid as a master storyteller of the first order Absolutely absorbing from beginning to end very highly recommended for personal reading lists as well as for both community and academic library Historical Fiction collections Midwest Book Review Reviewer's Bookwatch January 2016 Buhle's Bookshelf Subject Adult Fiction Eternity's Ennui M.B. Pranger, 2010-10-05 Augustine articulates temporality as focus rather than duration It encompasses the shift from the future through the present to the past Yet this a causal free floating concept of time has never been applied to the shape of Augustine's own narrative in the Confessions or to that other vintage Augustinian problem predestination This book examines Augustinian temporality by experimentally projecting it onto modernist authors Kleist Henry James Kafka Beckett who are less dependent on sequential narrative and more concerned with the fragility and sustainability of voice in time Processed through this mill of unfamiliar readings the poignant problem of Augustinian time is how focus can account for digression How can one deal with an unfathomably brief notion of time while eternity's longueur hovers over it The Greatest Religious Novels of All Time Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Gustave Flaubert, Mark Twain, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Dante Alighieri, George MacDonald, Anatole France, Henry Van Dyke, Robert Hugh Benson, Arthur Christopher Benson, Leonid Andreyev, John Bunyan, Grace Livingston Hill, Voltaire, Paul Laurence Dunbar, John Milton, Charles M. Metafiction and Myth in the Novels of Peter Ackroyd Susana Onega Jaén,1999 Providing detailed analysis of the recurrent structural and thematic traits in Peter Ackroyd s first nine novels this work sets out to show how they grow out of the tension created by two apparently contradictory tendencies These are on the one hand the metafictional tendency to blur the boundaries between story telling and history to enhance the linguistic component of writing and to underline the constructedness of the world created in a way that aligns Ackroyd with other postmodernist writers of historiographic metafiction and on the other the attempt to achieve mythical closure expressed for example in Ackroyd s fictional treatment of London as a mystic centre of power This mythical element evinces the influence of high modernists such as Ezra Pound and T S Eliot and links Ackroyd s work to transition to postmodern writers such as Lawrence Durrell Maureen Duffy Doris Lessing and John Fowles
