Armstrong,2000-08-07 Does your child have a favorite subject activity or hobby Children learn in multiple ways and educator Thomas Armstrong has shown hundreds of thousands of parents and teachers how to locate those unique areas in each of our children where learning and creativity seem to flow with special vigor In this fully updated classic on multiple intelligences Armstrong sheds new light on the eight ways to bloom or the eight kinds of multiple intelligences While everyone possesses all eight intelligences Armstrong delineates how to discover your child s particular areas of strength among them The book shatters the conventional wisdom that brands our students as underachievers unmotivated or as suffering from learning disabilities attention deficit hyperactivity disorder or other learning diseases Armstrong explains how these flawed labels often overlook students who are in possession of a distinctive combination of multiple intelligences and demonstrates how to help them acquire knowledge and skills according to their sometimes extraordinary aptitudes Filled with resources for the home and classroom this new edition of In Their Own Way offers inspiration for every learning situation ADD/ADHD

Alternatives in the Classroom Thomas Armstrong,1999 What does it mean to a kid to be labeled attention deficit disordered ADD Or to have hyperactive added to the label ADHD What can teachers do to boost the success of students with attention and behavioral difficulties Are we relying too much on medication for these kids and not enough on new perspectives on learning child development the child s socioeconomic and cultural background biological and psychological research and the learner's emotional and social needs Armstrong urges educators and parents to look for the positive characteristics in learners who may carry the ADD/ADHD label Are they bursting with energy Are they intensely creative Do they enjoy hands on learning Are they natural leaders Are they unusually introspective and reflective We need to look beyond a deficit approach and embrace a more holistic view of learners that includes teaching to their multiple intelligences learning styles and other brain friendly approaches For example here are some classroom activities for kids who can't sit still Learning spelling words by having kids jump up out of their seats on the vowels and sit down on the consonants Mastering the multiplication tables by forming a conga line moving around the classroom counting from 1 to 30 out loud and on every multiple of 3 shaking their hips and legs Showing patterns of molecular bonding in chemistry class through a swing your atom square dance
