Perfection held at the Whitechapel Gallery in East London this book explores the ways in which artists engage with ideas of perfection drawing on screenings performances and discussions The symposium featured the work of an eclectic group of artists and writers who use photographic lenses of many kinds to create works that engage with or disrupt ideas of perfection Framed from an artist's perspective and spanning a diverse range of artworks that question how these ideas shape our personal identities and our social and political systems On Perfection considers the multifaceted nature of lens based practices

Challenging Theory: Discipline After Deconstruction Catherine Burgass, 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this volume perceives that English literature is under threat as an academic discipline In Challenging Theory Catherine Burgass warns against the recent trend towards the conflation of literature teaching with cultural studies in British and American universities Focusing on theory of deconstruction as developed by Jacques Derrida in the 1960s the book redresses some common misinterpretations of Derrida's work relating to the status of metaphysical oppositions Part One discusses textual differences and the ways in which these may dissolve and reform according to different cultural contexts The practical issues associated with teaching literature and literary theory in universities are examined in Part Two while Part Three highlights some of the more invidious claims of literary theorists and questions the value of metaphysical analysis as a tool for political critique Challenging Theory tackles an important debate that lies at the heart of humanities teaching It illuminates the impact on academia of the work of critical theorists over the last thirty years and provides a platform for future reassessment of the relationships between literature philosophy and theory

Fetishes, Florentine Girdles, and Other Explorations Into the Sexual Imagination Harriett Gilbert, 1994 International in outlook thoroughly broad minded and wide ranging in approach Fetishes Florentine Girdles and Other Explorations into the Sexual Imagination is a provocative and idiosyncratic feminist's companion to the major religious scientific political and philosophical theories about sexuality as well as to the artists who have attempted to understand and represent the subject The 250 alphabetically arranged entries range historically from the ancient world to the end of the twentieth century and geographically from China to Australia from Japan to the United States through India Africa South America the Caribbean and Europe The entries by feminist writers of diverse views combine information with informed opinion and build up to a passionate and high spirited debate about sex and sexuality

City Wilds Terrell Dixon, 2002 The assumptions we make about nature writing too often lead us to see it only as a literature about wilderness or rural areas This anthology broadens our awareness of American nature writing by featuring the flora fauna geology and climate that enrich and shape urban life Set in neither pristine nor exotic environs these stories and essays take us to rivers parks vacant lots lakes gardens and zoos as they convey nature's rich disregard of city limits signs With writings by women and men from cities in all regions of the country and from different ethnic traditions the anthology reflects the geographic differences and multicultural makeup of our cities Works by well known and emerging contemporary writers are included as well as pieces from important twentieth century urban nature writers Since more than 80 percent of Americans now live in urban areas we need to enlarge our environmental concerns to encompass urban nature By focusing on urban nature writing the selections in City Wilds can help develop a more inclusive environmental consciousness one that includes both the nature we see on a day to day basis and how such nearby nature is viewed by writers from diverse cultural backgrounds CURRENT CONTENTS ,1995
