The Healing Circle Essays In Crosscultural Mission:

The Healing Circle Stephen Bevans, Eleanor Doidge, Robert J. Schreiter, 2000-10 Indigenous Perspectives of North America Judit Nagy, Enikő Sepsi, Miklós Vassányi, 2014-08-20 The present volume brings to North American Native Studies with its rich tradition and accumulated expertise in the Central European region the new complexities and challenges of contemporary Native reality The umbrella theme Indigenous perspectives brings together researchers from a great variety of disciplines focusing on issues such as democracy and human rights international law multiculturalism peace and security economic and scientific development sustainability literature and arts and culture as well as religion The thirty five topical and thought provoking articles written in English French and Spanish offer a solid platform for further critical investigations and a useful tool for classroom discussions in a wide variety of academic fields Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney, 2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing A Struggle for Holy Ground C. Michael Weldon, 2004 A Struggle for Holy Ground results from thirty five interviews with participants in the 1989 consolidations of then parishes in Chicago s Englewood and two parishes from the San Francisco consolidations after its 1989 earthquake It explores the roles of ritual and pastoral care in this sometimes highly conflicted situation through the lens of trauma and reconciliation It proposes a series of new rites group reconciliation atonement lament leave taking memorial and inauguration based on the experience of people most impacted by parish restructurings The Church and Indigenous Peoples in the Americas Michel Andraos, 2019-01-25 Indigenous and non Indigenous voices come together in this volume to discuss both the wounds of colonial history and the opportunities for decolonization reconciliation and hope in the relationship between the church and Indigenous peoples across the Americas Scholars and pastoral leaders from Chile Bolivia Brazil Mexico the United States and Canada and Indigenous peoples of Mapuche Chiquitano Tzeltal Maya Oglala Sioux Mi kmaq and Anishinaabe Ojibwe reflect on the possibility of constructing decolonial theology and pastoral praxis and on the urgent need for transformation of church structures and old theology The book opens new horizons for different ways of thinking and acting and for the emergence of a truly intercultural theology Mission and Development Matthew Clarke, 2012-01-26 This book considers the implications consequences opportunities and constraints faced when mission and development endeavours coincide This is explored from various perspectives including that of history theology and those involved in mission work and missionary organizations Despite eighty per cent of the world s population professing religious belief religion has been largely excluded from consideration of those seeking to achieve development in poorer countries Moreover the work of missionaries has often involved the provision of basic welfare services that in many parts of the world predate the interventions undertaken by professional secular aid workers Are missionaries doing development work or is development a critical aspect of mission Berlin Fellowship Jane Holslag,2013 Between 1961 and 1989 in East Germany the Cold War border was crossed through the Berlin Fellowship an ecumenical visitation program Under the watchful eye of East Germany s security police the Stasi East German Christians welcomed guests from the US into their congregations and homes for an hour an evening or a weekend of discussion shared meals and worship The voice of the other through Eastern recollections and perspectives on this unique form of koinonia reveal how fellowship can be missional and transformative This book examines the intercultural history of the Berlin Fellowship during the Cold War Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 14 Prophetic Dialogue Stephen B. Bevans,Roger P. Schroeder,2011 A collection of essays that demonstrates that to be effective in the twenty first century mission must be prophetic as it encounters other cultures and religious traditions When we speak as mission as dialogue then we are about as far away from imagining mission as conquering the world for Christ and missionaries as marines of the Catholic Church as we probably can get There has indeed been a radical shift both in the world in which the church does mission and within the church s own consciousness of the goodness and even holiness of that world These words from one of the essays in this superb collection clearly demonstrate the changing of mission today In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Reweaving the Ministries Gilbert Ostdiek,2021-05-30 As the Emmaus story unfolds it moves from catechesis to Eucharist to mission It is a promising paradigm for the process of reweaving the present array of parish ministries into an integrated pastoral practice Gilbert Ostdiek OFM invites those engaged in ministry and those preparing for it to think of their own ministry as part of a larger pastoral tapestry He also extends the Emmaus paradigm to pastoral leaders who have the responsibility to integrate and coordinate the practice of ministry at parish and diocesan levels Reweaving the Ministries invites all who are involved in ministry to become ever more fully in St Paul s description co workers with one another and co workers with God in the care of God s people

Creativity and Captivity Uday Balasundaram,2021-12-02 Ultimately what really does it mean to be creative How can we see ourselves as participating in the creativity of God for mission All people are creative Sadly however for many creativity is stifled and remains stunted due to several reasons social economic political cultural and even spiritual This study explores how ICMs indigenous cosmopolitan musicians negotiate their creativity amid the liminal spaces they occupy as they share in the creativity of God for mission through their music But what exactly does it mean to share in the creativity of God for mission Contrary to popular notion ICMs evidence that creativity is not merely innovation it is not a psychological metric for measuring human potential it is certainly not the icing on the cake reserved for a few so called creatives or artists Rather theological creativity is participation in the creatio Dei it is theologically prior to mission As a missiological framework creatio Dei is understood here in terms of creative being creative construction design and creative performance Hopefully this book can help clarify and expand our understanding of what it means to be truly creative and thereby with the help of the Creator put into practice principles of theological creativity as we share in the creativity of God in the world with others
