The Mystery of the Hidden House Enid Blyton, 1991

The Hidden Hand Emma

Southworth, 2021-11-09 In The Hidden Hand Emma Southworth weaves a captivating tale that merges elements of romance, mystery, and social commentary within the context of 19th-century America. The novel centers on the life of a young woman whose struggles against societal constraints and personal adversities reveal deeper themes of identity, family loyalty, and moral integrity. Southworth's prose is both vivid and evocative, characterized by a picturesque depiction of the American landscape and a keen observation of human behavior, positioning the work as a significant narrative during the rise of sentimental literature and the burgeoning women's literary tradition. Emma Southworth, an influential figure in American literature, was born in 1819 and became one of the first female authors to achieve commercial success. Her own experiences, which included the challenges of single motherhood and financial instability, heavily informed her writing. Through her works, Southworth aims to challenge the patriarchal norms of her time, advocating for women's rights and social reforms while employing suspenseful storytelling to engage her readers. I wholeheartedly recommend The Hidden Hand for readers seeking an immersive exploration of moral complexity and resilience. Southworth's ability to blend intrigue with heartfelt narratives offers a profound reading experience, making it a critical addition to the canon of American literature.

The Hidden

Houses of Ireland Marianne Heron, 1999 Intended as a companion guide to THE HIDDEN GARDENS OF IRELAND by the same author, this is an illustrated guide to houses all over Ireland. The history and architecture of each house is discussed, as well as the family background of past and present inhabitants. It also contains opening times, directions, admission prices, and contact numbers.

The Hidden House Martin Waddell, 1992 Shortlisted for the 1990 Emil Kurt Maschler Award in addition to winning the 1991 W. H. Smith Illustration award.
