the interconnected structure of domination in capitalist societies especially in relation to gender and class Through a historical analysis of industrial slaughterhouses the study reveals how the human animal divide and meat based diet are not timeless facts but concrete social solutions crucial for the reproduction of capitalist society Fresh Susanne Freidberg,2010-10-01 That rosy tomato perched on your plate in December is at the end of a great journey not just over land and sea but across a vast and varied cultural history This is the territory charted in Fresh Opening the door of an ordinary refrigerator it tells the curious story of the quality stored inside freshness We want fresh foods to keep us healthy and to connect us to nature and community We also want them convenient pretty and cheap Fresh traces our paradoxical hunger to its roots in the rise of mass consumption when freshness seemed both proof of and an antidote to progress Susanne Freidberg begins with refrigeration a trend as controversial at the turn of the twentieth century as genetically modified crops are today Consumers blamed cold storage for high prices and rotten eggs but ultimately aggressive marketing advances in technology and new ideas about health and hygiene overcame this distrust Freidberg then takes six common foods from the refrigerator to discover what each has to say about our notions of freshness Fruit for instance shows why beauty trumped taste at a surprisingly early date In the case of fish we see how the value of a living quivering catch has ironically hastened the death of species And of all supermarket staples why has milk remained the most stubbornly local Local livelihoods global trade the politics of taste community and environmental change all enter into this lively surprising yet sobering tale about the nature and cost of our hunger for freshness Superfund laws and animal agriculture United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Environment and Hazardous Materials,2005 The Monster at Our Door Mike Davis,2006-08-22 In this first book to sound the alarm on a possible pandemic Davis tracks the avian flu crisis as the virus moves west and the world remains woefully unprepared to contain it Cheap Meat Deborah B. Gewertz,Frederick Karl Errington,2010 Gewertz and Errington unpack the aspirations and anxieties calculations and controversies that inhabit an inexpensive cut of fatty meat Following the trail of sheep bellies from slaughterhouses in Australia and New Zealand to the plates of Pacific Islanders they evenhandedly map the divergent perspectives of commercial traders government officials and ordinary consumers acting within a contested material and moral economy Cheap Meat provides a startling view of how global food markets fashion the bodies and identities of people everywhere Robert J Foster author of Coca Globalization Following Soft Drinks from New York to New Guinea Cheap Meat is a compelling example of how ethnography concerned with Oceania can elucidate broader questions in anthropology and the social sciences in general Gewertz and Errington show the complexity of globalization by focusing on the most unlikely commodity This work at once demonstrates how unfettered capitalism is able to use global circulation to literally convert one person s trash to another s treasure and how resilient Pacific Islanders refashion Western commodities to their own ends Paige West Curator for the Pacific American Museum of Natural History ReFiguring Global Challenges ,2023-10-20 An important task for scholars of cultural studies and the humanities as well as for artistic creators is to refigure the frames and concepts by which the world as we know it is kept in place Without these acts of refiguration the future could only ever be more of the violent same In close dialogue with literary and cinematic works and practices the essays of this volume help refigure and rethink such pressing contemporary issues as migration inequality racism post coloniality political violence and human animal relations A range of fresh perspectives are introduced amounting to a call for intellectuals to remain critically engaged with the social and planetary
