Clarence-Smith,1979 Slaves, Peasants and Capitalists in Southern Angola 1840-1926 ,1979 Kongo in the Age of Empire, 1860-1913 Jelmer Vos,2015 An insightful look at the onset of colonialism in Central Africa from economic religious and political perspectives examining the ultimately tragic participation of African elites in colonial rule Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran,Joel Quirk,2015-05-05 In Mobility Makes States political scientists historians sociologists and anthropologists examine the role of mobility in shaping how states are formed and how they behave Focusing on links between power and migration across sub Saharan Africa the book explores how and why states have sought to harness movements towards their own ends

Fighting for Honor T. J. Desch-Obi,2021-04-12 A groundbreaking investigation into the migration of martial arts techniques across continents and centuries The presence of African influence and tradition in the Americas has long been recognized in art music language agriculture and religion T J Desch Obi explores another cultural continuity that is as old as eighteenth century slave settlements in South America and as contemporary as hip hop culture In this thorough survey of the history of African martial arts techniques Desch Obi maps the translation of numerous physical combat techniques across three continents and several centuries to illustrate how these practices evolved over time and are still recognizable in American culture today Some of these art traditions were part of African military training while others were for self defense and spiritual discipline Grounded in historical and cultural anthropological methodologies Desch Obi s investigation traces the influence of well delineated African traditions on long observed but misunderstood African and African American cultural activities in North America Brazil and the Caribbean He links the Brazilian martial art capoeira to reports of slave activities recorded in colonial and antebellum North America Likewise Desch Obi connects images of the kalenda African stick fighting techniques to the Haitian Revolution Throughout the study Desch Obi examines the ties between physical mastery of these arts and changing perceptions of honor Including forty five illustrations this rich history of the arrival and dissemination of African martial arts in the Atlantic world offers a new vantage for furthering our understanding of the powerful influence of enslaved populations on our collective social history Oil, Democracy, and Development in Africa John R.

Heilbrunn,2014-04-21 This book focuses on the history key industry and policy actors and political economic outcomes in oil producing African states filling a gap in the literature on resource abundant countries by providing an optimistic assessment of circumstances in contemporary Africa The Aesthetics of Belonging Claudia Gastrow,2024-10-25 After centuries of colonial rule the end of Angola s three decade civil war in 2002 provided an irresistible opportunity for the government to reimagine the Luanda cityscape Awash with petrodollars cultivated through strategic foreign relationships President Jos Eduardo dos Santos rolled out a national reconstruction program that sought to transform Angola s capital into what he considered to be a modern world class metropolis Until funds dried up in 2014 the program in conjunction with sweeping private investments in real estate involved mass demolitions of vernacular architecture to make way for high rise buildings large scale housing projects and commercial centers The program thus underestimated the values enshrined in the materials and designs of Luanda s existing informally constructed neighborhoods or musseques The Aesthetics of Belonging explores the political significance of aesthetics in the remaking of the city Claudia Gastrow s archival and ethnographic work which includes interviews with city planners architects nonprofit leaders and urban dwellers shows how government infrastructure projects and foreign inspired designs came to embody displacement and exclusion for many This Gastrow argues catalyzed a countermovement an aesthetic dissent rooted in critically reframing informal urbanism as Indigenous a move that enabled the possibility of recognizing the political potential of informal settlements as spaces that produce belonging
