Introductory Lectures on Psychoanalysis Sigmund Freud, 1977 In reasoned progression he outlined core psychoanalytic concepts such as repression free association and libido

Of the various English translations of Freud's major works to appear in his lifetime only one was authorized by Freud himself. The Standard Edition of the Complete Psychological Works of Sigmund Freud under the general editorship of James Strachey. Freud approved the overall editorial plan, specific renderings of key words and phrases and the addition of valuable notes from bibliographical and explanatory. Many of the translations were done by Strachey himself, the rest were prepared under his supervision. The result was to place the Standard Edition in a position of unquestioned supremacy over all other existing versions. Newly designed in a uniform format, each new paperback in the Standard Edition opens with a biographical essay on Freud's life and work along with a note on the individual volume by Peter Gay, Sterling Professor of History at Yale.

The Constitution of Society Anthony Giddens, 1986-03-25. It is likely that this book will be regarded as the most important piece of grand sociological theory in English of the past decade. Mark Poster, University of California. This book will take its place alongside such major statements of sociological theory as those of Parsons and Habermas. Anyone interested in the state of the social sciences today, the character of social theory or the relevance of philosophy to social theory will now find it essential to grapple with Giddens's bold and incisive book. Richard Bernstein, Haverford College, USA. Anthony Giddens's new book is the fullest presentation yet of his theoretical views; it has the lean, sparse, utterly serious, craftsmanlike qualities we have learned to expect from its author and which make it a real pleasure to read. Dennis Wrong, Times Higher Education Supplement.

Slips of the Tongue Tapio Hokkanen, 2001. Slips of the Tongue provide an open window to unconscious representations and processes in speech production. This study is a report on naturally occurring errors in spontaneous speech. It describes the types of slips which arise, the constraints that govern the arousal of these errors and how speakers repair the slips they commit.
