The Great British Picture Show From The 90s To The 70s:

The Great British Picture Show George Perry,1973 The Great British Picture Show George Perry,1974 Suchen the daughter of a mapmaker goes on a journey through an enchanted land to find the king s son Re-Viewing British Cinema, 1900-1992 Wheeler W. Dixon,1994-07-01 Re Viewing British Cinema 1900 1992 is a collection of essays on British cinema history and practice It offers both the casual reader and the film scholar a different view of British filmmaking during the past century Arranged in chronological order the book explores those areas of British cinema that have not been fully examined in other works and also offers fresh interpretations of a number of classic films From the work of Frederic Villiers the pioneering British newsreel cameraman who at the turn of the century brought home images of battlefield carnage to essays on the British B film and the long forgotten Independent Frame method of film production to new readings of classics such as The Red Shoes Passport to Pimlico and Peeping Tom the authors offer a look behind the scenes of the British film industry and engage the reader in some of the most compelling interpretational and historical issues of recent film history and critical theory In addition the volume contains a number of interviews with such key directors as Stephen Frears Terence Davies Wendy Toye and Lindsay Anderson and also pays particular attention to the work of early twentieth century British feminist filmmakers whose films have often been ignored by conventional film theory and history It also offers new material on the British film noir the English horror film and the pioneering gay director Brian Desmond Hurst Taken as a whole this book presents an entirely new series of viewpoints on British film practice theory and reception and affords a fresh and vibrant view of the British film medium British Popular Films 1929-1939 Stephen Shafer,2003-09-02 Shafer s study challenges the conventional historical assumption that British feature films during the Thirties were mostly oriented to the middle class Instead he makes the critical distinction between films intended for West End and international circulation and those intended primarily for domestic working class audiences Far from being alienated by a middle class institution working men and women flocked to see pictures featuring such music hall luminaries as Gracie Fields and George Formby
