The Haunting Of Lamb House:

The Haunting of Lamb House Joan Aiken, 1991 Roman The role of "Lamb House" in Joan Aiken's novel "The Haunting of Lamb House" Philipp Röttgers, 2022-04-05 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Bonn Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik und Keltologie course Country Houses and Landscape Gardens language English abstract Haunted houses have become an own genre in literature The Haunting of Lamb House seems a classical haunted house story It is a novel written in 1991 by British author Joan Aiken and it deals with the real existing Lamb House in Rye Sussex First I will give a short overview over the real existing Lamb House in Rye in the neighbourhood of Aiken's birthplace and some information about its inhabitants which might be important for the story In the analysis I will give a definition of the haunted house and the whole genre that deals with haunted houses Then I will go through the story of the novel and point out the impact Lamb House has on its inhabitants and the way the house is presented Afterwards I will have a look at the historic background of the story Aiken has written In the conclusion I will also try to find out if Lamb House in the story represents a haunted house and if the novel fulfils the criteria for being a novel which fits into the genre of the haunted house

Ghost Stories by British and American Women Lynette Carpenter, Wendy K. Kolmar, 2015-01-28 Originally published in 1998 and covering a tradition ignored by most critics this bibliography assembles and documents a large body of supernatural fiction written by women in English from the end of the 18th century to the present These stories the work of women whose literary reputations personal histories and bodies of work vary widely challenge the narrow way in which supernatural literature has traditionally been regarded they indicate a much richer and more complex set of literary responses to the supernatural than has been hitherto acknowledged The writers included range from Ann Radcliffe and the Gothic novelists to Louisa May Alcott Charlotte Gilman and Edith Wharton to such modern writers as Elizabeth Bowen Jean Rhys Muriel Spark and A S Byatt The volume will be of interest to literary and cultural historians and of particular importance to women's studies scholars

The Murder of Mr. Grebell Paul Kléber Monod, 2008-10-01 On a winter night in 1743 a local magistrate was stabbed to death in the churchyard of Rye by an angry butcher Why did this gruesome crime happen What does it reveal about the political economic and cultural patterns that existed in this small English port town To answer these questions this fascinating book takes us back to the mid sixteenth century when religious and social tensions began to fragment the quiet town of Rye and led to witch hunts riots and violent political confrontations Paul Monod examines events over the course of the next two centuries tracing the town's transition as it moved from narrowly focused Reformation norms to the more expansive ideas of the emerging commercial society In the process relations among the town's inhabitants were fundamentally altered The history of Rye mirrored that of the whole nation and it gives us an intriguing new perspective on England in the early modern period

Scores John Clute, 2016-11-24 For more than 50 years John Clute has been reviewing science fiction and fantasy As Scores demonstrates his devotion to the task of understanding the central literatures of our era has not slackened There are jokes in Scores and curses and tirades and apologies and riffs but every word of every review in the end is about how we understand the stories we tell about the world Following on from his two previous books of collected reviews Strokes and Look at the Evidence this book collects reviews from a wide variety of sources but mostly from Interzone the New York Review of Science Fiction and Science Fiction Weekly Where it has seemed possible to do so without distorting contemporary responses to books these reviews have been revised sometimes extensively 125 review articles over 200 books reviewed in more than 214 000 words Dust Martha Grimes, 2007 Richard Jury investigates the death of a wealthy bachelor with a mysterious past who was last seen in a club named Dust Secret Rye & Around Terry Philpot, 2017-10-15 Explore the secret history of Rye through a fascinating selection of stories facts and photographs The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art Homes and Haunts Alison Booth, 2016 This is the first full length study of literary tourism in North America as well as Britain and a unique exploration of popular response to writers literary house museums and the landscapes or countries associated with their lives and works An interdisciplinary study ranging from 1820 1940 Homes and Haunts Touring Writers Shrines and Countries unites museum and tourism studies book history narrative theory theories of gender space and things and other approaches to depict and interpret the haunting experiences of exhibited houses and the curious history of topo biographical writing about famous authors In illustrated chapters that blend Victorian and recent first person encounters that range from literary shrines and plaques to guidebooks memoirs portraits and monuments Alison Booth discusses pilgrims such as William and Mary Howitt Anna Maria and Samuel Hall and Elbert Hubbard and magnetic hosts and guests as Washington Irving Wordsworth Martineau Longfellow Hawthorne James and Dickens Virginia Woolf s feminist response to homes and haunts shapes a chapter on Mary Russell Mitford Gaskell and the Brontes and another on the Carlyles house and Monk s House Booth rediscovers collections of personalities haunted shrines and imaginative re enactments that have been submerged by a century of academic literary criticism Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person s identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another
