God the Invisible King (The original unabridged edition) H. G. Wells, 2013-09-05 This book sets out as forcibly and exactly as possible the religious belief of the writer That belief is not orthodox Christianity it is not indeed Christianity at all its core nevertheless is a profound belief in a personal and intimate God There is nothing in its statements that need shock or offend anyone who is prepared for the expression of a faith different from and perhaps in several particulars opposed to his own The writer will be found to be sympathetic with all sincere religious feeling Nevertheless it is well to prepare the prospective reader for statements that may jar harshly against deeply rooted mental habits It is well to warn him at the outset that the departure from accepted beliefs is here no vague scepticism but a quite sharply defined objection to dogmas very widely revered

... With Introduction by Rev. E. Storrow Mary Eliza LESLIE, 1875 Liturgy, Theurgy, and Active Participation Kjetil Kringlebotten, 2023-09-08 Providing a metaphysical grounding for liturgical participation this book argues that active participation in the liturgy must be understood principally as our participation in God's act particularly in the act of Christ and only secondarily as our ritual involvement Utilizing Neoplatonist philosophy Kjetil Kringlebotten proposes that this should be understood in terms of theurgy which is the human participation in divine action which finds its consummation in the incarnation of Christ Without the incarnation all acts will remain extrinsic and imposed but acts can become real and intrinsic precisely because the incarnation makes possible true union with the divine a metaphysical union in distinction without confusion because this union is not extrinsic Through union with Christ as the one common focus of the divine human relation we can have true union with God and may offer true worship In order to make sense of active participation then we need to understand theology in theurgic terms where theurgy is understood not as a mechanical coercion of God but as a participation in His act in creation and through Christ as the true theurgist the master theurgist Whose work transforms our act and the liturgy The Fortnightly Review, 1912 Beauty of Holiness in Heart and Life, 1861
