Looking After Heritage Places Michael Pearson, Sharon Sullivan, 2013-04-01 Most people want to know about their past and to see and hear about the evidence of it They want to learn about past history and some places are particularly suited to achieving this Conservation of such places is important to national or local self identity Looking After Heritage Places is a comprehensive reference and sourcebook for anyone managing a heritage place an Aboriginal site historic building or any other place of cultural importance to the community The authors provide a step by step guide to identifying a heritage place assessing and documenting the site implementing conservation practices visitor management international and Australian legislation Looking After Heritage Places offers a wealth of information on preserving and conserving heritage places for administrators owners caretakers volunteers students and professionals Pearson and Sullivan survey key issues currently being debated in the field and in the wider community and discuss their implications for heritage management

The Heritage of Victoria Australian Heritage Commission, 1983 St Patrick s Cathedral William Wardell Kew City Exhibition building Melbourne Club Savage Club Mechanic s Institute Victorian Year-book ,1984 Hunters and Collectors Tom Griffiths, 1996-04 Hunters and Collectors is about historical consciousness and environmental sensibilities in European Australia from the mid nineteenth century to the present It is in part a collective biography of amateur antiquarians archaeologists naturalists journalists and historians people who shaped the Australian historical imagination Dr Griffiths illuminates the way these avid collectors and investigators of the Australian land and of its indigenous inhabitants contributed a sense of identity at colony wide and eventually nationwide level He also considers the rise of professional history anthropology and archaeology in the universities which ignored the efforts of the amateurs Griffiths shows how the seemingly trivial activities of these hunters and collectors feed into the political and environmental debates of the 1990s This book is outstanding in its originality interpretative insight and literary flair The A to Z of Australia James C.

Docherty, 2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere the British were not Australia s original populace The first inhabitants of Australia the Aborigines are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60 000 years ago This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world s most successful immigrant nations The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world Through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets author James Docherty provides a much needed single volume reference on

Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal tolerant democracy it is today

Geographies of Australian Heritages Roy Jones, Brian J. Shaw, 2017-11-30 In any settler and or postcolonial society heritage is a complex and contested topic that involves indigenous imperial and other migrant components In Australia this situation is compounded by the unique characteristics of the country's natural environment the considerable diversity of its migrant intake and the demographic and technological imbalances between its indigenous and settler populations This volume brings together internationally recognized academics and emerging scholars whose expertise extends through the areas of tourism planning heritage management environmental studies and state and local government Through a representative set of case studies from across the country's states and capital cities the contributors demonstrate the range and diversity of heritage issues currently confronting Australia and consider possible ways of resolving these

Commonwealth Government Directory, 1986 Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs, William Chapman, Julia Gatley, Ross King, 2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth's surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why's and how's of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment Locating Australian Literary Memory Brigid Magner, 2019-11-22 Locating Australian Literary Memory explores the cultural meanings suffusing local literary commemorations It is orientated around eleven authors Adam Lindsay Gordon Joseph Furphy Henry Handel Richardson Henry Lawson A B Banjo Paterson Nan Chauncy Katharine Susannah Prichard Eleanor Dark P L Travers Kylie Tennant and David Unaipon who have all been celebrated through a range of forms including statues huts trees writers houses and assorted objects Brigid Magner illuminates the social memory residing in these monuments and artefacts which were largely created as bulwarks against forgetting Acknowledging the value of literary memorials and the voluntary labour that enables them she traverses the many contradictions ironies and eccentricities of authorial commemoration in Australia arguing for an expanded repertoire of practices to recognise those who have been hitherto excluded Exploring Place in the Australian Landscape David S. Jones, 2022-08-30 This book offers an original framework on how to investigate understand and translate sense of place at a regional scale The book explores contemporary sense of place theory and practice drawing upon the Western District of Victoria in Australia being the Country of the White Cockatoo It offers a unique multi temporal and thematical analytical approach towards comprehending and mapping the values that underpin and determine strengths of human relationships and nuances to this landscape Included is a deep ethno ecological and cross cultural translation that takes the reader through both the Western understanding of sense of place as well as the Australian Aboriginal understanding of Country Both are different intellectual constructions of thoughts values and ideologies but which share numerous commonalities due to their archetypal meanings feelings and values transmitted to humans
