The Hermitage The Biography Of A Great Museum:

The Hermitage: The Biography of a Great Museum Geraldine Norman, 2018
Museum Geraldine Norman, 2018-07-02 The Hermitage Museum in St Petersburg is possibly the greatest museum in the world. It began as a showcase for the art treasures of the Tsars and reflects their legendary extravagance. Imperial romances, marriages and murders all had an impact on the collection as did the byzantine bartering of international politics. Nationalised by the Bolsheviks in 1917, the museum expanded to fill the imperial family's Winter Palace and the three riverside pavilions that were built onto the palace in the late eighteenth century. Vast confiscated collections came the way of the museum as a result of the Revolution, the finest treasures of the Russian nobility as well as two great merchant collections of Gauguin, Matisse and modern masters. The courage and devotion to scholarship of its curators have helped the museum survive the terrible trials of the twentieth century: the exile, imprisonment and execution of many staff during Stalin's purges and extremities of hunger during the siege of Leningrad when 2,000 people lived in a makeshift bomb shelter in the museum cellars. With the 1990s has come a new battle as the Hermitage struggles to survive amidst the economic chaos of post-Communist Russia. This is the first full history of this great museum in any language. It highlights the human adventures involved in the creation and preservation of one of the finest art collections in the world and reveals the hitherto unchronicled dramas of the Communist years. It provides an unusual perspective on Russia's troubled history.

The Empress of Art Susan Jaques, 2016-04-15 A German princess who married a decadent and lazy Russian prince, Catherine mobilized support amongst the Russian nobles, playing off of her husband's increasing corruption and abuse of power. She then staged a coup that ended with him being strangled with his own scarf in the halls of the palace and herself crowned the Empress of Russia. Intelligent and determined, Catherine modeled herself off of her grandfather-in-law, Peter the Great, and sought to further modernize and westernize Russia. She believed that the best way to do this was through a ravenous acquisition of art, which Catherine often used as a form of diplomacy with other powers throughout Europe. She was a self-proclaimed glutton for art and she would be responsible for the creation of the Hermitage, one of the largest museums in the world, second only to the Louvre. Catherine also spearheaded the further expansion of St Petersburg and the magnificent architectural wonder the city became is largely her doing. There are few women in history more fascinating than Catherine the Great, and for the first time, Susan Jaques brings her to life through the prism of art.

Museums in Motion Juilee Decker, 2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance, resiliency and future proofing. Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums, natural history and anthropological museums, science museums, museums focused on history and the past, and gardens, zoos and children's museums. Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U.S. Section II explores the primary functions of museums, including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible

North Pontic Archaeology G.R. Tsetskhladze, 2021-11-22 This volume deals with the classical archaeology of the northern Black Sea littoral discussing excavations and studies conducted by Russian Ukrainian German Czech and British archaeologists and classicists over the last 10 12 years It presents the results of excavations of such sites as Berezan Nikonion the chora of Olbia the chora of Chersonesus rural settlements of the European Bosphorus sites on the Taman Peninsula etc Several articles discuss the Scythians and other local peoples as well as particular objects This 6th volume of Colloquia Pontica publishes much previously unknown material and gives a clear picture of the achievements of scholarship in the study of the North Pontic Region Included are book reviews and an elaborate listing of new publications The book is very richly illustrated

Reclaiming Byzantium Pinar Üre, 2020-02-20 There is a long held feeling in Russia that Moscow is the true heir to the Christian Byzantine Empire In 1894 Imperial Russia opened one of the world's leading centres for Byzantine archaeology in Istanbul the Russian Archaeological Institute its purpose was to stake the claim that Russia was the correct heir to Tsargrad as Istanbul was referred to in Russian circles This then is the history of that institute and the history of Russia's efforts to reclaim its Middle East events since in the Crimea Syria and Georgia are all to some extent wrapped up in this historical framework Üre looks at the founding of the Russian Archaeological Institute its aims and its place in the digging race which characterised the late Imperial phase of modern history Above all she shows how the practise of history has been used as a political tool a form of soft power

Mellon David Cannadine,2021-06-02 A landmark work from one of the preeminent historians of our time the first published biography of Andrew W Mellon the American colossus who bestrode the worlds of industry government and philanthropy leaving his transformative stamp on each Andrew Mellon one of America s greatest financiers built a legendary personal fortune from banking to oil to aluminum manufacture tracking America s course to global economic supremacy As treasury secretary under Presidents Harding Coolidge and finally Hoover Mellon made the federal government run like a business prefiguring the public official as CEO He would be hailed as the architect of the Roaring Twenties but staying too long would be blamed for the Great Depression eventually to find himself a broken idol Collecting art was his only nonprofessional gratification and his great gift to the American people The National Gallery of Art remains his most tangible legacy

When Art Makes News Katia Dianina,2012-11-15 From the time the word kul tura entered the Russian language in the early nineteenth century Russian arts and letters have thrived on controversy At any given time several versions of culture have coexisted in the Russian public sphere The question of what makes something or someone distinctly Russian was at the core of cultural debates in nineteenth century Russia and continues to preoccupy Russian society to the present day When Art Makes News examines the development of a public discourse on national self representation in nineteenth century Russia as it was styled by the visual arts and popular journalism Katia Dianina tells the story of the missing link between high art and public culture revealing that art became the talk of the nation in the second half of the nineteenth century in the pages of mass circulation press At the heart of Dianina s study is a paradox how did culture become the national idea in a country where few were educated enough to appreciate it Dianina questions the traditional assumptions that culture in tsarist Russia was built primarily from the top down and classical literature alone was responsible for imagining the national community When Art Makes News will appeal to all those interested in Russian culture as well as scholars and students in museum and exhibition studies

Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander,Mary Alexander,2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander s Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children s museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits
