The Hidden Light The First Filipino Priests:

The Hidden Light Luciano P. R. Santiago, 1987 A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett, 2014-07-30 This second volume of Samuel Moffett's acclaimed History of Christianity in Asia illustrates the advance of the modern missionary movement in the continent of its birth. Like the first volume, it makes available immense research in a readable and engaging narrative. Moffett brings into dramatic relief events that illustrate both the broad patterns and the vital details of the spread of Christianity on a continent Chaplains of the King in the Colonial Philippines Alexandre Coello de la Rosa, 2025-07-06 The first of two volumes on the archbishops and cathedral chapters of seventeenth century Manila, this book fills a historiographical gap by examining the diocesan clergy of the Philippines' political maneuverings. In particular, this volume studies the archbishops' unstable authority and ecclesiastical chapters' preeminence at this time. First, it emphasizes the need for a new paradigm of conflict-ridden Catholic evangelization (ius predicandi) that explores the interactions and engagements of the Church's legal agents, mainly priests, canons, and bishops, and brings their rivalries to the fore. Second, it draws attention to one of the most neglected topics in Philippine ecclesiastical history, namely, the metropolitan cathedral chapters, which far from being monolithic units at the service of their archbishops, were too highly fragmented to constitute a single power holder. This volume's examination of these power dynamics makes it clear that the history of the colonial Catholic Church cannot be separated from the political history of the Philippines Archbishops and Cathedral Chapters of the Colonial Philippines Alexandre Coello de la Rosa, 2025-08-26 This volume analyzes the religious history of the early modern Philippines. It examines the unstable authority of its archbishops and the preeminence of the Manila cathedral chapters in the second half of the seventeenth century. In particular, it considers these phenomena during the various convoluted periods of vacant sees, paying special attention to the dynamics of promotions within these collegiate bodies Colonial Counterpoint D. R. M. Irving, 2010-06-03 Uncovering and interpreting many rare archival sources, this study reveals in vivid detail a fascinating mosaic of a virtually unknown area of music history. Irving uses the metaphor of counterpoint to explicate how music in early modern Manila was influenced by a pluralistic mixture of styles from around the world The Spanish Pacific, 1521-1815, Volume 2 Christina Lee, Ricardo Padrón, 2025-10-01 This second collection of primary sources in English translation ranges across a gamut of places and moments in the early modern Spanish Pacific. It may be used in conjunction with Volume 1 or on its own. While its focus continues to be on the encounters and entanglements that arose in the Spanish Pacific, it more strongly emphasizes the challenges faced by secular and ecclesiastical authorities in their attempts to control a distant colony and reshape its culture from the complex forms of identity formation in the diverse world of the colonial Philippines to the complexities of inter-imperial rivalry in East and Southeast Asia as a whole. As with Volume 1, each document is introduced by a specialist in the field and includes a list of suggestions for further reading. An introductory essay surveys current work in the field of early modern Spanish Pacific studies and provides a lengthy bibliography Isabelo's Archive Resil B. Mojares, 2017-11-01 Isabelo's Archive reenacts El Folk Lore Filipino 1889 Isabelo de los Reyes's eccentric but groundbreaking attempt to build an archive of popular knowledge in the Philippines Inspired by Isabelo's ghostly project this collection mixes essays vignettes extracts and notes on Philippine history and culture Blending the literary and the academic wondrously diverse in its range it has many gems to offer the reader Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel, 2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de-nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel's comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia's Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes

The Spanish Pacific, 1521-1815 Christina Lee, Ricardo Padrón, 2025-10-01 The Spanish Pacific designates the space Spain colonized or aspired to rule in Asia between 1521 with the arrival of Ferdinand Magellan and 1815 the end of the Manila Acapulco galleon trade route It encompasses what we identify today as the Philippines and the Marianas but also Spanish America China Japan and other parts of Asia that in the Spanish imagination were extensions of its Latin American colonies This reader provides a selection of documents relevant to the encounters and entanglements that arose in the Spanish Pacific among Europeans Spanish Americans and Asians while highlighting the role of natives mestizos and women A first of its kind each of the documents in this collection was selected translated into English and edited by a different scholar in the field of early modern Spanish Pacific studies who also provided commentary and bibliography

Counter-Hispanization in the Colonial Philippines John Blanco, 2025-10-01 In Counter Hispanization in the Colonial Philippines the author analyzes the literature and politics of spiritual conquest in order to demonstrate how it reflected the contribution of religious ministers to a protracted period of social anomie throughout the mission provinces between the 16th 18th centuries By tracking the prose of spiritual conquest with the history of the mission in official documents religious correspondence and public controversies the author shows how contrary to the general consensus in Philippine historiography the literature and pastoral politics of spiritual conquest reinforced the frontier character of the religious provinces outside Manila in the Americas as well as the Philippines by supplanting the absence of law in the name of supplementing or completing it This frontier character accounts for the modern reinvention of native custom as well as the birth of literature and theater in the Tagalog vernacular
