The Hydra's Tale R. Rawdon Wilson, 2002-05 Imagine a disgusting experience Now think about your response What was it about the moment that made you turn your head that led your lip to curl and nose to wrinkle Disgust has many triggers some obvious others less so What disgusts us is never irrevocably fixed and certain It changes from culture to culture and even at times within a culture This fluidity makes the term disgust at once deadly simple and extremely complex In The Hydra s Tale Robert Rawdon Wilson treats the experience of disgust not from the perspective of the disgusting object in the world but from its representation Disgust marks either a slip over the border of the socially sanctioned or a struggle to keep someone or something from crossing that border Working through the spectrum of human response culture and art Wilson teases out the assumptions that underpin the disgust response
