The Hand I Fan With:

The Hand I Fan With Tina McElroy Ansa, 1997-12-29 Bestselling author Tina McElroy Ansa is back with another tale from Mulberry Georgia the richly drawn fictional town and home of the extraordinary Lena McPherson Lena now forty five and tired of being the hand everyone fans with has grown weary of shouldering the town's problems and wants to find a little love and companionship for herself So she and a friend perform a supernatural ritual to conjure up a man for Lena She gets one all right a ghost named Herman who though dead for one hundred years is full of life and all man His love changes Lena's life forever satisfying as never before both her physical and spiritual needs Filled with the same humor grace and great respect for power of the particular The New York Times Book Review as her previous critically acclaimed novels Baby of the Family and Ugly Ways The Hand I Fan With is yet another memorable and life affirming tale from one of America's best loved authors

Writing African American Women Elizabeth A. Beaulieu, 2006-04-30 Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page's Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other topics are included as well Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography African American culture is enormously diverse and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex Women were among the first African American writers and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike At the same time African American women have been oppressed and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways The first of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors In addition to covering male and female African American authors the encyclopedia also discusses themes major works and characters genres periods historical events places and other topics Included are entries on such authors as Maya Angelou James Baldwin Frederick Douglass Nikki Giovanni June Jordan Claude McKay Ishmael Reed Sojourner Truth Phillis Wheatley And many others In addition the many works discussed include Beloved Blanche on the Lam I know Why the Caged Bird Sings The Men of Brewster Place Quicksand The Street Waiting to Exhale And many more The many topical entries cover Black Feminism Black Nationalism Conjuring Children's and Young Adult Literature Detective Fiction Epistolary Novel Motherhood Sexuality Spirituality Stereotypes And many others Entries relate their topics to the experience of African American women and cite works for further reading Features and Benefits Includes hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries Draws on the work of numerous expert contributors Includes a selected general bibliography Offers a range of finding aids such as a list of entries a guide to related topics and an extensive index Supports the literature curriculum by helping students analyze major writers and works Supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to understand the experience of African American women Covers the full chronological range of African American literature Fosters a respect for cultural diversity Develops research skills by directing students to additional sources of information Builds bridges between African American history literature and Women s Studies

House Furnishing Review ,1894

Ugly Ways Tina McElroy Ansa,1995-01-17 Three sisters return to their southern hometown after the death of their difficult demanding mother in a novel by the author of Baby of the Family In life Esther Lovejoy was an intolerable mother She raised her daughters with an iron fist browbeat her husband into submission and insisted they call her Mudear an abbreviation of Mother Dear As adults with successful careers Betty Emily and Annie Ruth have scattered across the country to avoid Mudear s influence But now it s time to lay her to rest and the Lovejoy sisters have returned to Mulberry Georgia to pay their last respects What they discover is that while Mudear may be dead she is far from gone With a large dose of compassion and a generous splash of humor Tina McElroy Ansa serves up a powerful tale of family secrets and the ways our scars make us stronger A voice that is fresh and strong and just quirky enough to stand out from the crowd The Boston Sunday Globe An entertaining read The author like a good small town gossip paints a vivid picture of three bright beautiful and emotionally scarred African American sisters Los Angeles Times
