Disability Protests Sharon N. Barnartt, Richard K. Scotch, 2001 In 1952 the Federal Republic of West Germany concluded a treaty with Israel whereby the Germans had to pay three billion Deutschmarks in compensation for the Holocaust However the Israelis felt that Germany owed Israel a moral as well as a financial debt and thus expected further aid and protection Although Germany made several concessions in favour of the Jewish State particularly in the domain of armament as

Germany's political status increased its national interest gradually took priority over that of Israel George Lavy examines the grounds which motivated Germany to grant aid to Israel and the change in their relations as the German economy flourished and gained influence in world affairs The Psychological and Social Impact of Illness and Disability Arthur E. Dell Orto, Paul W. Power, 2007-04-02 The newest edition of The Psychological and Social Impact of Illness and Disability continues the tradition of presenting a realistic perspective on life with disabilities and then improves upon its predecessors with the inclusion of illness as a major influence on client care needs Articles included represent the best of developing concepts theory research and intervention approaches Classic articles kept from previous editions round out a diversity of viewpoints that will enrich student understanding of what is important in beginning rehabilitation practice Further broadening the scope of this edition is the inclusion of personal perspectives and stories from those living with illness or disabilities These stories offer a glimpse into what it is like to cope day to day with these issues and direct examples of how effective current care models and rehabilitation theories can be Relevant expert articles plus insightful narratives combine to offer a bridge between theory and reality and guide students and professionals in rehabilitation practice closer to their goal of enhancing the quality of life for all individuals
